The Peaceful Night-Fallen Forest

??????

Owls call out in the dark, peaceful night,

Where the flowers and animals sleep,

Where the wolves sing, up to the full, bright moon,

Watch the grass grow,

As night shines down brilliantly and beautifully,

Where the water ripples shimmering waves outward,

Where the alpha, beta, and omega find tranquility in the moon-shone fields,

Watch the grass grow,

As night shines down brilliantly and beautifully,

Where field mice and rats crowd around to find bits of food,

Where the pups can rest in peace with their pack's protection,

Watch the grass grow,

As night shines down brilliantly and beautifully,

Where the bats fly freely about,

Where the night seems endless to the nocturnal,

Watch the grass grow,

As night shines down brilliantly and beautifully,

Where a night-fallen forest lays in a peaceful, silent song,

Where the wolf lives out a blameless life.
