Bio:

Not many people know where he came from, but they know a few things about him, he is big, strong, but kind, he is shown to be smart in some professions and fields, such as making his Fear Gas, the very first person he met was Tala, who showed him that you need to be kind to others, not angry and deceitful. And since then, he has become a lot more dangerous, so if you're looking in case someone's following you, I'd always make sure not to overlook anybody, for he could be any of them.
