Prologue

The night was dark the moon was not showing. Liz, James, and Amy were on the high way coming home from dinner. They re sad occasion for dinner out was it was two years ago the death of Liz s and Amy s parents death. There was a sharp turn up a head Liz did see it but she went strait over the road. When Amy woke up she was the only person in the car. With not that many cut or burses, the only thing left were her sister and boy friend sat was there medallion nickels that they have always worn. James was always there for her when she needed him, he would just appear out of thin air. So did her sister regardless of their age differences, but when she needs them the most she does not know where to look. Where could they have gone when a problem that she can not fix what should she do. Were should Amy turn who could she turn to?
