It's this super odd poem that i did that I don't even understand

1. O_o

There's a flame without a fire,
A wind but there's no breeze,
It's a hundred below zero,
But nothing will ever freeze,

Everyone is perfect,
But tests are being done,
It's a game that's being played,
But no one's having fun,

And I'm dancing in a wheel chair,
Singing but there's no song,
I don't know what it is yet,
But something here is wrong.
