'Pirates!' is a book by Celia Rees that I quite adore.

Drabbles are 100-word ficlets. I find it easier to group them by fandom than post each one separately.

1. Taking Turns

TAKING TURNS

"Shouldn't William be the one doing this?" Minerva asked as she tied fresh bandages on my leg. The stinging smell of the ointment filled the room.

"I didn't tell him." The pain was then familiar enough to almost feel welcoming. She raised an eyebrow.

"So you know, this means you owe me a hand with Jupe's diapers."

"Shouldn't Vincent be the one doing that?"

"I'll tell him when he gets back!"

"And then we can go back on the account, and they can stay here to lick wounds and change diapers."

A few weeks later, that's just what we did.
