1. Chapter 1

Lavender's Vacation

This is a story I'm writing about Lavender. If you read my story Friendship, the Strongest Bond, then you would know that Lavender is Ali's SIR unit. Well, enjoy the story.

I don't own Invader Zim, now, on with the story!

Lavender is sitting on Ali's bed watching her pack a bag, "Mistress? Why are you packing?" Ali smiled and looked at Lavender, "I'm going on a trip with Purple. We'll be gone for a month or so." Lavender tilted her head to one side, "A trip?" Ali giggled, "Yeah, a vacation, it's when you go away for a little while to somewhere else to have fun or visit someone. Purple and I are just going somewhere to have fun." Lavender's eyes lit up for a moment, "Oh." Ali closed the bag and went to the door, Lavender followed, "Mistress, am I coming too?" Ali turned to Lavender, "Sorry, Lavender, but you have to stay here. I need you to keep an eye on things while I'm gone." Lavender saluted, "Yes, mistress." Ali smiled and left. Lavender plopped down to a sitting position on the floor and her antenna dropped as she hung her head, "What am I supposed to do for fun while mistress is away?" Lavender lifted her head up and looked around, her eyes fell upon the rubber piggy Gir had given her last time she was on Earth. She walked over and picked it up, she had developed a sort of crush on Gir, "I know, I'll go on Vacation like mistress. I'll go and visit Gir. But how will I get to Earth?" Lavender looked up a few ways on the computer, "I bet I can drive a voot. I'm smart enough to do it. I just need to get one."

Lavender looked around on Irk for a while until she found a place where she could rent a voot. She walked over to the Irken who was renting the voots to everyone. He looked at Lavender with curiosity, "Well, well. Why would a Sir unit be here? Is there something I can do for you?" Lavender had made up a little story, "Um.. I want to rent a voot, it's for my mistress." The Irken smiled, "Alright just choose one and tell me how long your mistress will need it." Lavender chose a small voot and told the Irken that it will be brought back in about a month. Lavender smiled as she flew away in the voot, "These things are easy enough to control, now I'm off to Earth." The voot that she rented was very fast and it only took a few hours to get to Earth. Lavender tried to land, but ended up crashing just outside the park, she stumbled out of the voot, "That could have gone better." Lavender scanned the area, "Where did I land anyway?" Lavender walked into the park and ran into a little green dog and he looked at her and said in a high pitched voice, "Lavender! HI!"

Lavender looked at him confused but recognized the voice, "Gir?" Gir smiled and removed the hood of his disguise, Lavender smiled and her eyes lit up, "Gir it is you!" She jumped up and gave Gir a hug and someone came running up, "Gir! Why did you run off like that/ Put your hood back on, someone might see us." Lavender looked up at him, "Hi Zim." Zim looked at her, "Lavender/ Why are you here?" Lavender smiled, "Mistress went on Vacation and I was bored being alone so I decided to go on Vacation somewhere too." Zim sighed, "You better come back to my base, you can't stay here without a disguise." Lavender smiled, "Okay." And they went to Zim's base.

At Zim's Base Zim tried to decide a good disguise for Lavender, while Gir and Lavender played with rubber piggies. Zim turned to The two SIR units, "Lavender, I chose a disguise for you." Lavender ran up to him, "What is it?" Zim smiled, "I was thinking that you could be a bunny." Lavender giggled, "That sounds neat." Zim turned back to the computer and pointed at some type of pod, "Just stand over there and we'll see how your disguise looks." Lavender did as she was told, Zim pushed a few buttons and the pod closed, there was a flash inside the pod and it opened back up. Now Lavender was wearing a bunny disguise. She was a light purple bunny with a dark purple belly, and dark purple paws and the tips of the ears were dark purple. Lavender smiled, "How do I look?" Gir smiled, "You're on fire." Lavender giggled. Zim was pleased with the disguise he thought up, "That is the best disguise I ever thought of. It's perfect." Lavender looked at him, "I like it." Zim smiled, "Good. You don't have to wear it while you're in the base but if you leave the base at any time at all you MUST wear your disguise, understand?" Lavender giggled, "Yes sir." Gir put on his disguise, "Let's go get some taquitos." Lavender ran over to the elevator with Gir and Zim leaned against the wall and looked at the green video locket Ali had given him, "I wonder if she knows that Lavender came here." Zim can't communicate with Ali using the locket like Ali could communicate with Purple using hers. Zim sighed and decided to see if she had the minicomputer with her. Unfortunately he couldn't reach her. "I wonder where she is."

Meanwhile, Gir and Lavender were walking down the street each had a bag of taquitos and a drink. Lavender was enjoying her drink, "Mm. Chocolate bubblegum is good." Gir smiled, "It's my favorite." Lavender giggled and they continued walking. They passed by a tv store and Lavender stopped to look at what was on the tvs her bunny ears hanging behind her head swung back and forth as she turned to look. Gir also stopped and looked at the tv, "I love this show." Lavender tilted her head, "What show is it?" Gir giggled, "It's the scary monkey!" Lavender looked back at the tv, "Oh." People who passed by looked at them, but didn't think it was strange to see a bunny and a dog watching tv. Until Dib showed up, with Gaz, "Hey it's Gir." Gaz shrugged playing her Game Slave, "Whatever." Lavender noticed them, "Hi, Dib." Dib looked a little confused, "Ok, how do you know who I am?" Lavender giggled, "It's me, Lavender." Dib's eyes widened, "Lavender? Why are you back here?" Lavender smiled, "I'm on vacation." Dib raised an eyebrow, "Vacation? Do robots really go on vacation?" Lavender shook her head, "Well, why not? I'm on vacation." Dib sighed, "Does Ali know that you're here?" Lavender smiled, "No, she's on vacation too, and I'll go home before she gets back and she'll never know I was gone." Dib smirked, "Nice plan. But there's one thing you didn't think of." Lavender looked confused, "What?" Dib walked over to her, "What if Ali comes back sooner than expected?" Lavender thought for a minute, "I can apologize." Lavender shrugged. Gir walked over to Lavender, "Let's go home and play with Minimoose." Lavender smiled, "Okay." Lavender waved to Dib as she and Gir walked away.
