Its a poem about Kagome thinking about Inuyasha after he said he wanted to be with Kikyo.

1. Love

Love makes your heart flutter.

Love makes your heart skip a beat.

Love brings you hope.

You give your heart to them when in love.

When I first saw you,

You brought me hope.

You made my heart flutter,

Made my heart skip a beat.

But now, when I look at you,

All I see is hate,

Regret.

I regret giving you my heart.

I regret rejecting all the other guys.

I regret all the time I stayed up,

To think about you.

But most of all,

I regret falling in love with you.

Please tell me why,

I must hate you.

Please tell me why,

You must hate me.

Please tell me why,

I'm not good enough.

Love is when you give your heart to someone special.

But when that love is not returned,

It gets thrown back,

In pieces.
