1. life, live it

Life

This is my first ever story that is not for school so don't be disappointed if it isn't that good, its about life.

Life goes on and eventually you die but what causes you to die?

The begging of the end starts with anxiety....

Anxiety leads to fear....

Fear leads to anger....

Anger leads to pain....

Pain leads to suffering....

Suffering leads to guilt....

Guilt leads to madness....

Madness leads to death....

Life fears death but only lives to die, and the point is to live while you can and enjoy life till the END!
