1. Midnight Knight

Midnight Knight.

Every night every day

Sit and I cry I sit and I pray

I pray for the day to take me away

I cry night to night

Again it's the same

I cry to the knight

To take me away

I wait day to day

For someone to say

I'll take you from here

I'll take you away!!!

So I'll sit and I'll wait

I'll wait for the knight

The knight to come riding

Night after night.
