Fantasy Love

At one small village in Transylvania have one lovely couple which is fall in love each other. Bernard Clover and Sinda Volis. They are from a middle class. They are get married. When Bernard was 25 years old and Sinda was 23 years old. Bernard was a Kitchen hand before. And Sinda is helping her uncle Elder Volis running a tailor's shop.

They agree to moving from here to Bucarat which is a capital city of Romania. They starting new life there. Bernard get a new job working in office and Sinda get a job working in a confection store. They have dinner together often after work.

Bernard have a lot of friends at his company. They are very friendly friends and Sinda have a lot of friends also. They always make a party and nice dinner after they get pay every month.

Bernard and Sinda have two kids after 5 years married. The first one is Eric 4 years old boy, and a little girl name is Lydie 3 years old. A happy family is shaken when Waliter Vlad walk in their life. It happened when Bernard family met him at the park. He jumped and make friends, especially with Sinda and that make Bernard very upset with that. And after that Bernard find out his wife and Waliter was a paramour. That Bernard mistake. The truth is Waliter asked her out for dinner. Bernard have a big argue with Sinda and keep stay on their own side. Well if they both listen each other it's might not end up with break up. What happened with Bernard and Sinda make a big shock for their kid? Bernard take Eric go back to his home town. Leave Sinda and Lydie in big city. They are not happy any more specially for kids away from their parent and family.

4 years later, and Eric turn up 8 years old and he always thinking and missing his sister and his mum. He trying to find his mother telephone number from a telephone book. and he call his mother when his father away make a first. Lydie is answer the phone. Then they organize time to make a phone call, who will making a phone or who will answer a phone. And they changing more detail about their parents, First thing they are going to ask about how parents met "How am I born?" "Where is my mother?" Eric ask his father and he telling his father "I'm missing my sister" And Lydie stating to tell her mother a story about her friends at school always jocking her that Lydie does not have father. "What can I do?" "Where is my father?" and "Where is Eric?" Lydie asking her mother. It's chancy to talk over the phone. So Lydie and Eric sometime write a letter to keep in touch and make up a new name that make sure parents not open it. And be more careful when making a phone call.

Eric and Lydie keep asking their parents from they make up questions. "Where you first met my mother?" Eric asking his father. "It's not your business Eric" his father answer. But the fact is Bernard always thinking about his wife and his daughter. At the same time Lydie tries to ask her mother too. After that Sinda decides to write a letter to Bernard. That makes Bernard very happy. And Bernard replies to Sinda. That's how they start their relationship again. And after they talk over the phone quite often. Bernard decides to return to the capital city again with a warm welcome from Sinda. They are very happy. Especially Eric and Lydie are very happy because they do not see each other for a long time. Bernard and Sinda make a trip to where they first met at Dracula's castle in Transylvania. This is a great trip for the Clover family. Bernard and Sinda decide to get married. One thing that Eric and Lydie keep secret is "who makes their parents happy."
