1. You Make Me Sick

You Make Me Sick...

You're my enemy, my rival

My nemesis, my foe

You love to get my agitated

Adore to watch me groan

You'll find any excuse to ignite my wrath

You make me sick

You're a pervert no doubt

A failure that's what

You make fun of my family

You make fun of my friends

Every time I think you've reached

Your all time low,

You come back and surprise me

You make me sick

I hate your loser friends

They're as low as you are

You're a team of morons

And I am you're target

You make me sick

Why do you have to sit

Next to me in science?

Why do you have to

Be there at all?

You distract me

With you're idiotic antics

You make me sick

You don't really feel for me

The ways you say you do

I sense the sarcasm in your voice

Love is not something you should

Toss up freely like a joke

You make me sick

In the library with my friends

I hear them say they hate you

They say you're a stupid jerk

I agree

They also say they think

No girl likes you

I want to scream, "I know one"

But I hold my self down

You make me sick

So of coarse

I love you

2. Questions

Questions

My mother always told me

"Don't bother with a man

Who isn't nice"

I wish I could follow

That advice

And I'm usually not attracted

To relationships like this

But I just can't resist

So tell me are you sincere

When you say you hate me?

Are you joking

When you tell me you love me?

If you are Honest

How am I to Know?

Just hold me and don't let go

Oh, how bitter sweet love is

Ones heart makes it own choices

But, I think if I had a say

I'd choose you anyway

How you love to tease me

You make me laugh

Then you freeze me

Wouldn't you love to make me cry

But maybe you don't want to take

It that far

So tell me are you sincere

When you say you hate me?

Are you joking

When you tell me you love me?

If You are Honest

How am I to Know?

Just hold me and don't let go

What an odd request

Would you fulfill it?

Is it for the best?

Do I really want you too?

Are we friends?

Are we enemies?

Are you not so bad?

All these questions

Inside my head...

So tell me are you sincere

When you say you hate me?

Are you joking

When you tell me you love me?

If you are Honest

How am I to Know?

Just hold me and don't let go

So tell me are you sincere

When you say you hate me?

Are you joking

When you tell me you love me?

If you are Honest

How am I to Know?

Just hold me and don't let go

Don't let go

Don't let go

No, no, no

Don't let Go

Not till I tell you so

No, no, no

Don't let go

Don't let go

Don't let go

Don't...

3. Claire

Claire

(A/N: Yah this is the same one I uploaded before as a separate story. If you haven't already read it please do even if you have read it again)

She Lights up my world

A bit of a Tomboy but proud to be girl

We might as well be joined at the hip

We go so many places together

You'd swear she was my sis

You know I wouldn't change

One single thing about her

Heaven knows I can't smile with out her

Best person there has ever been

My best friend

Two year difference

But who gives a darn

What we do, you'd be alarmed

Are own Radio show

That's just plain silly

Stupid stories

Where people

Talk like Hillbillies

Share strange dreams

That make no sense

Then Laugh about them

For minutes on end

You know I wouldn't change

One single thing about her

Heaven knows I can't laugh with out her

Best person there has ever been

My best friend

My dearest friend

I'm sorry if I ever

Thought of you

As less than you are

You're one of the greatest people

To walk this earth

You know I wouldn't change

One single thing about you

Heaven knows I can't live with out you

Best person there has ever been

My best friend

Claire

4. My Rainbow

My Rainbow

Every cloud has a silver lining

After each rain storm

Comes a brilliant arch

Of light and color

And I try to believe that

Oh I try so hard

But I'm just waiting to see

My rainbow

The sign of my heart

My colors

Will be found again

And I can say good-bye to

The storm

And hello to

My rainbow

Every time it looks like the

Clouds have cleared

The fury rages on again
I used to say
Every bad thing has its good points
Could that be true?

And I try to be happy
But I'm just waiting to see

My rainbow
The sign of my heart
My colors
Will be found again
And I can say good-bye to
The storm
And hello to
My rainbow

I just hope
That this storm
Passes soon

And I'm just waiting to see

My rainbow

The sign of my heart

My colors

Will be found again

And I can say good-bye to

The storm

And hello to

My rainbow

To my Rainbow

Every cloud has a silver lining

After each rain storm

Comes a brilliant arch

Of light and color

5. Everyone But You

Everyone But You

(A/N: Here's a fun little song with attitude and seclusion mixed. See if you can follow along with it.)

I don't need you

In fact I'm quite happy without you

We aren't meant to be

Life is one big enjoyment now that you are gone

Happiness surrounds me
I feel the best

There's just one question

I want to ask

Who am I kidding?

Everyone but you

You see right through the lies

Into my eyes

And I could fool the whole wide world

But I cannot fool you

I hope you feel the same way I do

Yah I'm fooling everyone,

Everyone but you.

I tell my friends

Your stupidity knows no ends

My life rules

And I'll never stop loving you being away

Happiness surrounds me
I feel the best

There's just one question

I want to ask

Who am I kidding?

Everyone but you

You see right through the lies

Into my eyes

And I could fool the whole wide world

But I cannot fool you

I hope you feel the same way I do

Yah I'm fooling everyone,

Everyone but you.

I guess I should tell

Or maybe not

To change what I have

Is to change a lot

Happiness surrounds me
I feel the best

There's just one question

I want to ask

Who am I kidding?

Everyone but you

You see right through the lies

Into my eyes

And I could fool the whole wide world

But I cannot fool you

I hope you feel the same way I do

Yah I'm fooling everyone,

Everyone but you.

Everyone but you

You see right through the lies

Into my eyes

And I could fool the whole wide world

But I cannot fool you

I hope you feel the same way I do

Yah I'm fooling everyone,

Everyone but you.

Everyone but you

You see right through the lies

Into my eyes

And I could fool the whole wide world

But I cannot fool you

I hope you feel the same way I do

Yah I'm fooling everyone,

Everyone but you.

I'm fooling everyone,

Everyone but you

6. Prayer For Change

Prayer For Change

Lord, I know this path you put me on is long
And every single bump makes me strong
But I know you're going to put a river there
And when you do I don't know if I'll be prepared

I guess I should be scared
I should cower in the corner
Of my old faithful closet
I should cry,
Almost want to die
But It's not that bad

`Cause with
My friends as my pillars
And my family to catch me if I fall
With you as my leader
I'm not scared at all

7. Forever Loose

Forever Loose

It seemed alright today

I won't cry nearly as much

We're friends now right?

It was decided this morning

We're cool, we're friendly.

We're honest...

Enough.

But what you said,

I understand you

But you cannot see

My sincerity

But I guess it's only fair

After all I didn't believe in you're sincerity this morning

Why should you believe me in mine ever?

But you think it was a game

I played with you

And you're numbskull friends!!

When I said I liked you
Sure, it sounded sarcastic!
But only because
I didn't want you,
Or them,
Or anyone,
To know the truth
Not yet at least

What's the truth?
How can you ask that?
How can you not see?
You're dumb,
But are you really that blind?
The truth is I DO like you

No, I'm sorry,
I didn't mean that.
I'm being duplicitous again
I don't like you
I LOVE YOU!!!!

But I doubt I will publish this poem
And if I do publish this poem
I doubt it'll be in a book

And if it is in a book
I doubt you'll spot the book
And if you do spot the book
I doubt you'll buy the book
And if you do buy the book
I doubt you'll read the book
And if you do read the book
I doubt you'll read this poem
And if you do read this poem
I doubt you'll remember this day
And if you do remember this day
I doubt you'll make the connection
And if you do make the connection
I will be too late

But back to today
Don't take me the wrong way
I DO feel happy
I DO feel satisfied
We're friends
We don't hate each other any more
When other boys tease me
I won't feel so bad
Knowing you won't hurt me

Everything is falling into place

All the loose ends are tying together

All but one

Because I can't be honest,

Because I can't be sincere,

Because I can't tell you how I feel,

The end of you knowing my love for you

Will remain

Forever Loose

8. Let It Be You

Let It Be You

If anyone will compliment my eyes

Let it be you

If anyone must make me sing myself to sleep

Let it be you

If anyone must distract me,

Change the way that I am acting,

And cause me to fly inside

Let it be...

If I dream of anyone nightly

Hold anybody tightly

If anyone gives me my first kiss

If there is anyone I must miss

If anyone will tear me apart

Leave me crying, break my heart

Let it be you.

If anyone will buy me a diamond ring

Let it be you

If anyone will propose to me

Let it be you

If anyone must take my virginity

Let it be you

If anyone gives me children

Let it be you

If I dream of anyone nightly

Hold anybody tightly

If anyone gives me my first kiss

If there is anyone I must miss

If anyone will tear me apart

Leave me crying, break my heart

Let it be you.

I know my wishes sound selfish

But how can they hurt anyone but me?

I can't understand my addiction to you

But if anyone I love is untrue

Let it be you

If I dream of anyone nightly

Hold anybody tightly

If anyone gives me my first kiss

If there is anyone I must miss

If anyone will tear me apart

Leave me crying, break my heart

Let it be you.

If there's anyone I'll never forget

Let it be you

9. Love Is...

Love Is

Love is Heaven

Love is Hell

Love is flying in the clouds

Love is falling down a well

Love is Gorgeous

Love is Hideous

Love gives you strength

Love makes you weak

Love is your best friend

Love is your worst enemy

Love is riding a moonbeam

Love is drowning in the sea

Love is good

Love is evil

Love is singular

Love is plural

Love is laughing

Love is crying

Love is living

Love is dying

Love is a safe place

Love is dangerous

Love is sunshine

Love is rain

Love is Pleasure

Love is Pain

Love is inside us all

10. Inevitable

INEVITABLE

(A/N: About the FAMOUS C4 again. I've been meaning to write a poem like this for a while. ZAP is something we do where we write a time on the back of you're hand and a name of someone on the front. If you look at the name before the time written on the hand you have to ask them out. The time I was ZAP-ed which I mentioned in the Poem I didn't look at it before the time. You can sense the passion in the second stanza.)

When I first met you I hardly knew you

I guess it was Inevitable

My Friend ZAP-ed me for you

I guess it was Inevitable

I began to cringe at you're voice

I guess it was Inevitable

You were seated next to me; and I hated it

I guess it was Inevitable

You made fun of me

I guess it was Inevitable

You became my enemy

I guess it was Inevitable

You sarcastically said you loved me

I guess it was Inevitable

PURELY!!
TRULY!!
EXTREMELY!!

INEVITEBLE

SO INEVITEBLE THAT,

I SHOULD HAVE SEEN IT COMEING,

WHEN I FIRST LAYED EYES ON YOU!!!

IT WAS OBVIOUSLY

INEVITAVBLE

THAT I WOULD,

FALL IN LOVE WITH YOU!!!

11. Never Ending

Never Ending

She is looking off into the setting sun

She clasps the Maple leaf to her chest

She looks at him

She smiles an insincere smile

We would probably be in different places anyway

His eyes swell up with tears

He can't remember the last time he cried

Life is inevitable

Time can't be stopped

And the only way to escape them both

Is to die

And being in separate countries

Isn't worth Suicide

Is anything?

He stares at the ground

He wants to stare in her eyes

But it brings him too much pain

Life's not fair is it?

She says with a half laugh

Who are you and what did you do with my girlfriend

He knows she's usually up beat
He knows she doesn't say things like that
This isn't goodbye
It's until we meet again
And when will that be Christmas?
Too Long
Yah and our breaks aren't the same
They look away from each other
Knowing the awful truth
What about May?
That's when our anniversary is
They cry
She can't let go
He can't let go
So they let each other go

12. Come Back

Come Back

I wake to the rain

God must be crying for him

Soaking me down

Till I drown

I've always expected this

I just never saw it coming

Death is the one thing that's inevitable

And the one thing no one can predict

I feel tears swell behind my eyes

They sting and burn

But I don't cry

For reasons other pride

Had it been over the fence

I wouldn't care as much

I rarely talked to him

But I loved him

My stomach hurts

I want to run away

To the day

I'll feel ok again

Heavens up there

I can believe

One day again

His face I'll see

But today my heart

Is heavy and cracked

He is gone

And can't come back

13. Night Without You

Night Without You

Here I lie tonight

I am lonely

But not alone

I have sorrow and grief

To keep me company

I close my eyes

And try to drift off

I reach for a pillow

Hoping my drowsy mind

Will make me believe it's you

But I have no such luck

When I was little

After my mom kissed me goodnight

I'd cry

I thought I knew what loneliness was

I knew nothing

My mom would be there

The next morning

To hug and kiss and play with me

You're nowhere

I never realized how cold it is

Without your heat

I never realized how empty it is

Without your body

I never realized how silent

Without your breath

I go through this routine every night

The sorrow, the pain, the loneliness, is nothing new

This is just another

Night without you

14. Stupid Math Project

The Math Trail

(A/N: This written for this stupid project in math class. GRRRRRRR It's dumb but so was the project)

Looking back on the trail

I see I've come so far

I faced many rattlesnakes back there

Basic math problems I struggled with

8+6, 3+4, 7+5

I grabbed a stick

I tried to fight away the snakes

But they still bit me

But I kept on

Looking around me now

I am pleased with how far I've come

I sit for a minute

I take a drink from my water bottle

At first I hated the trail

Now I like it a lot more

And the slopes are less steep

Than they've been

The ground isn't as rocky

Looking ahead at the trail

I think about the rest of the journey

Maybe there will be more snakes

But maybe, Just maybe

The hills will level out

The path will be paved

I will like the trail

Even more than I do now

Looking back for one last time

I look around me

The scenery is beautiful

But I have heard

The scenery is even more spectacular

Up ahead

I pick my self up

And move on ward

17. Hypocrite Among You

Hypocrite Among You

Tears in my eye

Swelling to deep

This Wednesday night

Blinding me

I can't hold on to your arm any more

Cause when I m done with my five or four

I will run to some distant shore

Down the road

Don t mean much anymore

If I don t admit the truth

You ll have a hypocrite among you

It s not easy for me to say

But I've got to by the end of Today

Goodbye old friend

The you I knew is at end

I'd beg you stay

But that's impossible

I don't want you to go

But I'll go further, away

Goodbye old friend

So much changed today

You must stay

But I must go

We re so different

But so close

So, far

Must just have been inevitable

It s hard for me to admit it

But the old couch

Is as hungry for your childhood

As I am

If I don t admit the truth

You ll have a hypocrite among you

It s not easy for me to say

But I ve got to by the end of Today

Goodbye old friend

The you I knew is at end

I d beg you stay

But that s impossible

I don t want you to go

But I ll go further, away

Goodbye old friend

So much changed today

This is the coldest day

Of the year

The day I must say goodbye

Good bye my brother

The years do fly by

May distance be the only thing

Between us

If I don't admit the truth

You'll have a hypocrite among you

It's not easy for me to say

But I've got to by the end of Today

Goodbye old friend

The you I knew is at end

I d beg you stay

But that s impossible

I don t want you to go

But I ll go further, away

Goodbye old friend

So much changed today

Cause when I m done with my five or four

I will run to some distant shore

Down the road

Don t mean much anymore

18. Raise our glasses(For Me)

At first it seemed great

A new friend

Just what I need

My friends are everything

But if she were nothing to me

It d be so much easier

Give me a time machine

I ll go back and warn myself

Tell myself not to bother

She s more pain than she s worth

While she s crying with no friends to help her

I ll be happy I never knew her

Better selfish than sorrow

She ll be sighing, crying, slowly dying

Cause I left her

I won't have a clue

And I don't know about you

But for me that just doesn't cut it

Leaving my best friend choking

So, I don't have the weight

Of her problems on my mind

Raise our glasses to the selfish

I am becoming one.

May they always find

What they're looking for,

Even if it's just for them

I wanted to do something

So, I cried to my angel

When I came back

The room got so much darker

Feeling blind

I told my mom

But come on!

Is that her best advice?

Take her out

Put her where

Someone cares

She won't mind

I'm running blind

All I do is listen

I want to cry

She needs help

But I don't know what to do

And I don't know about you

But for me that just doesn't cut it

I've tried everything

In my damn power

But she gets hurt twice every hour

Raise our glasses to the helpless

She is one

May they get what they need

And not feel so alone

Does he notice it's been greater

Now than it's ever been?

I think she's the one

Who's causing me to say these,

These horrible things

I need to leave

So I can be happy

I used to be so upbeat

But lately I've been

So that's untrue

And I don't know about you

But for me that just doesn't cut it

My optimism is draining

Cause of all her complaining

Raise our glasses to the pessimists

I may soon become one

May they always get

What they don't expect

And then some

What is this on my paper?

Just rambling

That means so much to me

She's changed my life

Changed what I do

And I don't know about you

But for me that just might cut it

Change is often for the better

And how I need alot of it

Raise our glasses to those who deserve it

We are all them no question

May we always get

What s best for us

19. For Luke

For Luke

Everyday I sit
Several rows across from you
Some times when I should pay attention to him
I just stare at you

Do you ever
Catch me staring at you?
Do you ever
Know why?

You remind me of my brother a little
You re kind and friendly
That s the kind of man
I always wanted

Your hands look
So soft and strong
I want to feel mine
Placed in them

You re out of my league
There s no hope
But if there were even a small hope
Nothing would change

I want to tell you
The words
On the tip of my tongue
But it s hopeless

I m told it s worth the risk
But the chance
Is 50% haven
50% hell

It breaks my heart
To live on dreams alone
I m sure even if you said no
I would be happier than this

So, I want you
To be the first of them

To know
What I feel

I want you to be
The first of those legendary boys
To know
The naked truth

So, I pray Jesus grant me the strength
To go to you
And tell you
I love you

20. Pity Me, Humor Me

Pity Me, Humor Me

Who are you to tell me what to do?
If I stop talking to you?
Will you stop being the one I love?
Well, you can't help it
I can't even help it

Stop tormenting me
With your idiocy
Wake up and smell the stinkweed
You're the one my heart needs

I love you
Almost as much as
I hate you
You disgust me
Yet I am lusting
For your imaginary touch

So come on over
You know what to do
And don't pretend
You don't know what I feel for you
Let you're pretend shyness melt away
Let yourself go on me today

I love you
You moron.

Yet you seem to insist
On breaking
My heart daily
Idiot.

So come over
And at least say you're sorry
I don't care
If it's insincere like
Everything else you say to me
As long as you acknowledge
I have feeling

Take pity on me

I m just a fool
In love
With you

21. When A Freshman Loves a Senior

When A Freshman Loves a Senior

When a freshman loves a senior
She gets the feeling quite suddenly
One day they ve just met
In summer school
The next she s breathing for him
In orchestra

When a freshman loves a senior
She gets distracted far to easily
She can only focus on him
Not on where she s supposed to

When a freshman loves a senior
She can t tell him how she feels
He s out of my league
He probably thinks
I just foolish and naive
Is what she says to herself

When a freshman loves a senior
She just makes up her mind
That she will tell him A.S.A.P
And not keep wasting her time

When a freshman loves a senior
She loses all her chances
Just to tell him
Three simple words
She s too scared

When a freshman loves a senior
She begins to gag
Over the fact she can t tall him
Over the fact that she s too scared

When a freshman loves a senior
She finds no other way
To put feelings into words
Then poetry

When a freshman loves a senior
She gives some thought to her words

Writes it on a piece of paper
And hopes that they won't hurt

When a freshman loves a senior
She gives the note to her friend
He needs to know A.S.A.P.
And she can't deliver it herself

When a freshman loves a senior
She waits a whole weekend
Only for him to say
He hasn't read her note yet
And when he tells her
She can't even look at him
She's speechless and sad

When a freshman loves a senior
She tells her friend to get the note back
Before it's too late
That's when her friend tells her
He already has someone

When a freshman loves a senior
She's bound to get her heart broken
