Just a poem no big deal...

1. "Temperary.."

"I feel those I cannot see, screaming as they pull at me.I wish I were free but my dreams deceive me.I want nothing more than to leave, I want it more than one can believe.They deceive me as I bleed, Screaming,Clawing, and Biting. Holding, Shouting, and Fighting.They only want what they cannot have, That is why their happiness will never last.."
