Edward still believes he is to be blamed on what happened to his little brother, and he lets it be known through this poem.

1. I AM

DISCLAIMER: I DO NOT OWN FULLMETAL ALCHEMIST

I AM

I am the reason that caused you pain

I am the reason that caused you suffering

I am the reason for your fears

I am the reason you have no tears

I am the reason you can not feel

I am the reason you are damned

I am the reason your life is a mess

I am the reason you can not rest

I am the reason to blame

For I am

The one with the regret

The one who is determined to put what is right

The one who will continue to fight

The one who is weak

The one who put you in that mask

The one who will complete our task

The one you should hate

The one who needs to know above all others

Will you forgive me dear brother?
