this was so fun

1. the beginning

In the beginning there was a pup named Wulf. He was abandoned when his parents took the risk of leaving the pack. The only other pack closest was the Bockhetch tribe. They had killed his parents, he swore revenge. He had grown to be a fine wolf, wulf had learned to hunt and most of all fend for himself. The time had come; he had awaked from the sun stroking his eyelids. All of a sudden he saw some strange creature lurking in the shady trees in front of him, and then a wing span emerged.

2. the first meet

Wulf gazed at the tree,&..a weredragon flew down. Wulf growled angrily ,saying who are you. The weredragon responded im a weredragon named wakko,and you are? My name is wulf and wat do you want (as he calmed down)?im also in need of a pack. How did you know I was in need of a pack? Well you have a lot of battle scars and theyre pretty bad if you were in a pack your battle scars wouldn t have been that bad. They talked longer into the sunset, wulf spontaneously said you never answered my question,were are you from?
