Pretty much a summary of various dreams of mine.

1. Surreal Scape

Surreal Scape

Unlike this dream scape we walk now down
Through barriers, barriers, barriers
I'll take my chances with this stethoscope
And I'm influenced now by what?

Oh such a cute Chordata,
Rabid and yet adored
I'd like to say thank you ma'am,
But I've forgotten my place to say the least

And so here we stand at a crossroads
I'll go my way if you go yours
Let's see this letter in hand
To know my own, oh how sweet is sorrow

So cough now, don't hold tight
Pray with me now...pray...
I'll see you in better places, my dear...
Please don't close your eyes in discomfort
Fade away like all my dreams...

STITCH!
Grab hold and don't let go!
We'll stand here and writhe in fortune
Whilst you collapse to the ground
So stay down and dissipate!
Oh...why won't this go away...?

Fading...fading...faded...
Breathe in comfort,
She is here
She'll make sure you're sweet time's not over
And although her hands bring peace so close
You'll never catch her when she hides
But alas you're happy

Just be sure to remember upon re-entrance
That it was all a vision
But one can dream open endedly
So enjoy, sweet dreams, love
