We begin with MANY houseguests&.They compete for a thing called the HOH Standing for:
Head
Of Household

Then, The HOH will put up two nominties, These are the people The HOH wants to send home, Then the two Nominies, and sevrel other houseguests will compete to win The Veto This gives one of the Nominies OR another houseguest the right to take His/Herself, other person off the nominee block If the Winner Of the veto decides to use it on on of the Nominies, then The HOH must put up a new Nominie.

Okay, so the next 60 days will be filled with Drama, Romance, And other crap that I just forgot a second ago!

LET THE GAME BEGIN!
