It's a poem I wrote about suicide for health class last year. Just somethin' to post....kinda sad...but suicide isn't generally a happy thing....o well. Just read and comment!

1. Suicide: The victims that wish to be victims

The victims that wish to be victims,

The innocent people they hurt,

Tore out their heart and soul,

And ground them into the dirt,

After they were done,

They left their love to grieve,

And carried out their plan,

To really, truly leave.

Hope u like....I know, short....still, PLEASE COMMENT!

Just a little fact: Twice as many ppl die from suicide than homicide every year.
