Interpret it any way you like, this is for anyone that has ever felt lonely and confused about themselves, for those of us who have a faint idea of who we are to become but are scared to accept or understand it because those around us wouldn't.

Unorthodox, Unspoken

I will always remember the way the sunshine hit your face,
I will always long for those arms,
Wrapped in invisible grace,
You may have been weak of body, but never weak of heart,
When your love ones left,
You were already so frail,
And you began to fall apart.

You clung to me, clung to life, taking me as your closest friend,
The feelings I had were so much more than that,
It could never end,
How I had longed to tell you how I felt,
But then I d lose you,
And I never thought that you would be that kind.
I couldn t deny that when you were near,
I always had peace of mind.

If I hadn t held back that kiss
Before you wasted away, I would not be a Poe
Mourning the loss of his Lenore,
These feelings were not of friendship,
But ever so much more.
