1. Guardian Angel

by:ulrich101692

with the night to guide us and the rain beside us we have nothing to fear guardian angels above us and love within us
nothing can take us apart people laugh at us and tears rolling down our faces they don't understand with faith in each other and hope in our hearts nothing can stand between us they're not going to get us we are allies in battle and shadows as a person you are the pieces that bring me together you are:
my guardian angel
my hopes and dreams
i can never be apart from you because you are the one that makes me whole
