1. Past

Past

He was regretting everything his parents gave him
A home,
Life,
and even love.
No one talks to him
or even spares a passing glance.
he's alone,
liking it.
he tries to help people but they just
shun him away.
his past was a nightmare for him
and he wants nothing to do with it.
but looking back on it,
he has helped someone,...
himself...
by forgetting all of his past.
he doesn't know his own self
like others do.
he wants to forget but it keeps,
coming back...
he bloodied his hands too many times
to want to forget,
but someone out there is trying to reach out to him
he just doesn't know it yet.
