It's basically about everyone turning their backs on me just to watch me die.

1. No One

Where have I gone
I lost my own self
Can't find a way out
Calling for help
No one will answer
No one is there
No one will care if I die here or there
Reach into the darkness
Nothing is there
No one will help me
No one will care
Fading quickly
Losing track
Who are my friends
And who was that
Can't keep track of where I've been
What I did wrong
And what hadn't been
Quickly, quickly
Fading fast
If no one cares
I'll die real fast
One last call
One last plead
One last prayer as I hit my knees
Reaching out to something bright
Then lights out
It ends tonight...
