1. To a friend that is missed greatly...

To a friend who is missed greatly...

Why do I find it

Harder and harder

To get through each day

That draws

Nearer and nearer

To the day we meet once again?

Every night

As I lay my head down

And wait for sleep

To overcome me

I gaze up at your picture

As tears silently fall from my eyes.

The days feel longer,

Every week, a million years.

And I still await

The very day

We meet

Again.
