this is actually one of my dreams maybe a chapter a month

1. The beginning

My name is cody. This is my story. I'm a computer nerd no doubt. You see, it all started as I was adding a new graphics card to my computer. Then, and electrical shock ran up my arm and scrambled my DNA. That shock caused a horrible mutation. Now, lightning shoots from my finger tips at will. Of course no one knows and I continued on with my sort of normal life.

I walked into the band room that morning to find my crush , Carly sitting with her friends. I began walking over there when she walked out to breakfast. I decided to follow her. It's a good thing I did too. A shadow mutant popped out of the wall.

It turns out it was her ex-boyfriend, he wanted revenge. She dumped him because he cheated on her. Anyway, I was quick and shot out a quick bolt. It hit him just before he grabbed her. When the bolt hit him his mutation gunk landed on me and I became a double mutant. Thank fully no one saw my shot.

Carly was in my first period class. I decided to tell her what happend. I relayed her the information. She stood agast at what she had just heard. After she awoke from her trance she told me to prove myself. I conjured a shadow target. With a sloppy bolt of lightning the shadow target dissappered in a puff of smoke.

Carly couldn't believe her eyes. She thanked me for saving her from her ex. I knew more mutants on their way. I only had one more thing to do.

"Carly", I said

"Yeah?"

"You cant tell anyone about this"

"Why?"

"I can't take the attention"

"Okay that's fine"

Done deal.

2. the practice

When I got home from school that day i changed into some shorts and walked my palmarainean. I took her inside and i went into deep woods. In my apartment complex are some very painful and deep woods. No one goes back there so I decided to practice here.

My idea was to play hide and seek with ninjas and a samuri. The ninjas were close to Gaara and Shikamaru. I equipped the ninja with katanas, Kunai, Shuriken, And Demon Wind Shuriken. To survive this I would have to be quick on my wits.

I ran through the woods no doubt i was closely followed and i had to risk a technique that was very dangerous. I had to disappear into the shadow realm. Were only shikamaru can enter and then we would face off. Hopefully that wont happen.

The shadow realm is the exact opposite of the real world. Viney woods become clear woods. To any one else your just a shadow on the ground. After wandering around fo 30 minutes i see shikamaru down the way. We assumed the fighting positions and he readied some kunai and shuriken. Before he threw them in a blind fury I shot a web of lightning. Before I could see if it hit i dissapear into the real world.

Gaara was standing there. OH CRAP! I was caght by his sand clone and from my eyes, for the firt time, came a concentrated beam of lighning that looked like a laser beam. He flew back 10 feet. When he hit the ground he disappeared in a cloud of smoke.

Now my question was were was the samuri. Im the only one who can make him disappear. *scream* Oh no. I raced toward the manish scream. It was the samuri slaughter by an i-dont-know-what. By his body wich just disappeared in a puff of smoke was a line of sand.

I followed the trail and stood amazed at what could be a cousin of the chucaku.

To leave this forest I had one thing to do. To leave I had to kill this demon and take the mutation gene and find out who this is.

I knew this would be a fierce battle.

3. The Feirce Battle

As I approached this sand demon he began to change shape I jumped back wars in case he changed into something fierce. I was surprised when he didn't. I had to keep my guard up after a few minutes he took shape.

He took the shape of a humanoid. With my guard up I asked him, " Who are you? What is your name?"

"My name is Damon; I am here to destroy you"
"IN...YOUR...DREAMS"

I jumped at him only to be brought down by a sand chamber. It was air tight and I would have to think fast. The first thing that cam to mind was a Naruto episode. I had to use all m energy to do it though. I had to blow it apart with lightning.

As fast as possible I had to restrain him with shadows. I tried to hit him in the heart just in case that was the only way to kill him. I jumped fiercely toward him. Then spikes shot from his chest to block me and knock me back wards.

I would have to rebound quickly. I didn't have enough energy to escape from another chamber. I have to cover his whole body in restraints.

I flew through the air only to be snatched down by a sand clone. As I was occupied with the clone I heard a loud snap. Apparently Damon had broken his arm free of his restraint.

With his demonic claws he broke the rest of the restraint. There was only one option left. I had to use the Thunderstorm. The only problem is that I don't have enough energy to use it.

Right now, I would just have to conjure a demon blade. I set the point on where I wanted the blade to show up. Shadows spiraled around the point. Now, I have to dodge and evade wearing him out.

Finally the sword was done. I quickly swung it at his body. His body solidified and became as hard as cement and broke my sword. I thought it would be a while before he desolidified. Boy was I wrong when I went to snap his neck he grabbed me and threw me. I hit the ground hard.

The impact broke my arm. I used healing jutsu to fix it. I can't take this any more. I have to gather all m energy now.

As he grabs a tree I try to steady my self. The second I do I'm knocked backwards 10 feet. I can barely move and I'm going to go unconscience.

I just have to wear him out. Only five minutes until the storm. WHAM! Why am I telling you this story? WHAM! This is distracting me.

Finally the storm is ready. Damon is worn out. I begin to charge power. The power was so excessive I rose into the air. I fired the bolts. They were powerful and shot from my palms. I fell hard. Damon lay in front of me DEAD.

Now how do I take his power? An old man popped out of no where (WTF)and he said, " Give me your hand , boy" I showed him my hand.

"Ah..." said the old man.

"What?"

"Just stick his claw to your scar."

"How did you know I needed that?"

"I'm a mind reader. There are many of us. There is only one mutants though and you won't find him for a couple of years."

He disappeared in a flash. I did what he said to do. It burned when I did it but it worked. In a puff of smoke a man arose from Damon.

"You have slain the monster," he said.

"Yeah... So?"

"I must tell you a new move."

"What is it?"

"It's called lightning time freeze. Say it and time freezes."

"Cool."

These people are starting to scare me. But any ways. A new power this may come in handy.

4. The VISION

As i walked home with my broken arm, i began to daydream.

I daydreamed of Carly how helpless she was how weak she was how.....how.....

oh my god i get it the mark on her neck

its not a birthmark at all

its the mutant mark

she has a power and isnt being truth ful about it

BOOM! i heard a loud shot. i snapped out of my trance and went home.
i realized it was 8 o' clock and i needed to go to bed

when i fell into a deep sleep i saw myself runnung through the woods.
it seemed as i was being chased.

all of a sudden the old man came into view.

"CODY!"he said" YOU ARE BECOMING TO POWERFUL TO QUICKLY"

"like i care"

"find a sidekick, you need someone to keep you leveled. or you will become to powerful"

" who are you to say what i should and shouldnt do"

"AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA"

"OUCH""fine ill get a sidekick

i woke up after that still feeling the damage done to me in my dream

What is that guy
who is that guy
why is he helping me
i need more information
