1. Haven't Learned

Selena lay flat on her back, toying with the Omnitrix. She'd only found it a month ago, and she still needed to know more about it. For instance, that there was another Omnitrix. Another person who had it.

Ben had just finished trying to eat Grandpa Max's cooking, and was throwing stones out onto lake Michigan, where they were camping. He too had found the Omnitrix a month ago, and was still a beginner.

Neither of them knew the other existed. They thought they were the only ones who had the Omnitrix. They were wrong.

2. Meet the Aliens

Selena and Ben (even though they were on different planets*) were making a list of the aliens they had unlocked in the Omnitrix. Here's what they came up with.

3. Selena's Story

Selena Rose Tenarlis was born in New York City in a busy hospital. Jenna Tenarlis, her mother, died one year later. Another year passed before John Tenarlis, the father, did too. Jaclyn Ann Tenarlis was left all alone at 2 years old. On one fateful night, Jaclyn awoke to the sound of a crash. She stirred and began to cry. Two strange aliens that looked similar to plants noticed her and took her in as one of their own. Luckily for Jaclyn, her parents had labeled everything with her last name, and she was found near a rosebush, so she was named Selena Rose Tenarlis. Selena was the name the aliens, Mobius and Morpho, would have chosen for their own baby. 8 years later, after she'd grown out of her clothes and they'd been replaced with rags, she found the Omnitrix on her new home planet.

4. Ben Gets In Trouble

Ben had just walked into the Rustbucket, and Gwen was staring at him, anger burning in her eyes. Grandpa was mad, too. Ben looked at them questioningly. "What's up?" He asked, confused. "Don't play dumb with me, Ben. Wait, you always do." Gwen replied. "I really don't know why you're mad," Ben argued. "I saw you as Heatblast fly out of the sky on a flame." Gwen said. "WHAT!?" Ben yelled, "I never went hero once! Maybe it was from Heatblast's home planet, huh? What about that?" He was angry and puzzled. "Nope, I saw the Omnitrix symbol on it's chest." Gwen smiled, satisfied, as she said this. Ben opened his mouth, then closed it again. He said nothing and left. A large flame shot toward him when he walked out. He jumped out of the way just in time as an extremely girl-looking Heatblast landed next to him.

5. Meet Selena

Selena stepped onto the Michigan Lakefront as Flamegirl. She'd just landed harshly due to lack of practice. She looked down and saw a boy, about her age, scrambling to get up. When he did, Selena saw he had green eyes, and messy brown hair. He was wearing dark green cargo pants and a T-shirt with a thick black stripe running down the middle. Then, she saw it. On his wrist, the Omnitrix was clamped. She ran out of time and returned to human form. Ben saw a girl, his age, with purple eyes*, black hair, some draped in front of her left eye, some in a ponytail, and wearing a brown, tattered dress. He saw that she had the Omnitrix, too. They both stood, mouths gaping. "H-hi..." Selena stuttered, "I'm Selena."

* She lived on another planet so long, they turned out that way.

6. Best buds, and Some Unexpected Guests.

After the introductions, things went pretty well. Ben loaned Selena some of his clothes, so they looked almost exactly alike. Selena and Ben talked for hours about their adventures with the Omnitrix. Gwen was starting to get jealous. "Why is it that he walks outside, and BAM! Instant friendship! When I do and I just step in dog poo or something?" She asked Grandpa. "I'm just amazed that there's another Omnitrix." Max replied, staring at the two. Just then, there was a knock at the door. A boy, who looked exactly like Ben, but with red hair and blue eyes barged in along with a girl who looked exactly like Gwen but with blue hair and brown eyes. "Did ya miss me?" The boy announced. "Ren!" Ben exclaimed, hi-fiving his alien clone*. Ren and Dwen were back.

7. Racing Battles

The clones did a pretty good job fitting in after that. Selena became friends with Ren. One day, when Ren was Ripjaws, doing some fishing, Selena sat with Ben on the shore of Lake Michigan. She went Speed Demon and faced Ben. "Wanna race?" She asked. "You know it!" Ben exclaimed, turning into XLR8. They ran through the forest, Selena in the lead. "You ready to eat my dust?" Selena called over her shoulder. "Nope!" Ben exclaimed, and pulled ahead. Selena picked up speed, but Ben had come to an abrupt halt. She ran back to join him. A huge robot with lasers aimed right at them emerged through the trees. Ben ran out of time and it grabbed him with its metal claws, lifting him high into the air. Selena climbed up the robot's shoulder to try and help Ben. She kicked it in the face and it fell over, releasing Ben. He landed on the ground with a thud, and jumped onto Selena's back. They sped back to camp where everyone was looking for them. "I just don't get it." Ben said, "Why did the Omnitrix power down so fast?" "You know what Ben? I think this is something to sleep on." Selena reassured him, and she walked over to the beds, layed down, and fell asleep. Ben had a hard time getting to bed that night. He was wondering. Why had the Omnitrix run out of power so fast? And why hadn't Selena's? Why was she acting like this was normal? These questions swarmed in Ben's mind as he drifted off to sleep.
