It's a story of how a man's life falls apart in a second.

1. The Eternal Loss

He walked down the road
To see a man weep.
This man on his knees
Wept and wept
And wept.
He had lost his life
Even though he still
Breathed and thought.
As I walked up to him
Just to feel so distant.
I asked what had happened
Just to see more tears.
I reached down to comfort the man
And all I got was a push.
I have no choice but to leave
And pray to God for him.

As I cut the corner
I see a trail of bottles
Leading to some twisted metal
Engulfed in flames.
As I get closer
I see the remains of two cars
And two body bags.
There s nothing to do here
But to bow my head in pray.
Later on that night
As it all dwells on my mind
I learn that the one car
Was his son
Drunken after a party
And the other his wife.
