Well I was just thinking about Romance and couples and this just came to me!

1. A Heart

A heart is something you give when you really love someone
You give it even if they don't except it
You give it even if they don't love you back
You give it even if it means your life for theirs
You give them your soul
You give your everything so they won't be hurt
You give it and you always will
You give it when you love someone

A heart is something you give when you really love someone
It doesn't matter what anyone else says
It doesn't matter what they look like
It doesn't matter what feel like
It doesn't matter what they sound like
It doesn't matter what are
It doesn't matter what happens to you as long as they are safe
It doesn't matter if they want you to give up on them
It doesn't matter if they love someone else
It doesn't matter if they push you away you push it right back
It doesn't matter if to be with them you will get hurt

A heart is something you give when you really love someone
When your in love...
When your in love its like your in a Neverending Dream
When your in love that person it your safe zone always
When your in love that persons embrace is your spring
When your in love you can't be apart more than a second
When your in love you become a new person
When your in love you can't stand that person to be with anyone else but you
When your in love that person is your weakness
When your in love you feel like you can fly and touch the sky
When your in love that person is your best friend and your role model
When your in love you want to be their everything
When your in love your heart beats faster,blush,get sweaty,get dizzy,and faint
When your in love it does crazy things to you and the things about them drive you wild
When your in love you give your life to be together

A heart is something you give when you truly deeply love someone
It will never matter what they are to anyone else in your life or what you are to them as long as you keep on loving them.

Now: this was just something I was sorta kinda had in my head after I read Twilight and watched too much anime & a few from Romeo & Juliet. So I hope you like it its how I feel, although I don't feel that way about anyone now , I hope some day I will, and I will be able to dedicate this poem to someone I truly love! ^//^
