This is about my best-friend! We had had a fight so I wrote this for her... I love her forever

1. Dear Casidy,

Dear Casidy,

Hatred chafts away my sanity
Anger burns away my soul
To you I'm mean and not so nice
Although you keep me alive.

I'm insensitive and rude
Often sick and very crude
Suport and help you give
You are my last life-line.

I feal as though I'm about to drown
In my sea of negativity and pain
You will always be the life saver
That'll take me safe to shore.

So next time I vent on you
Because sometimes I feal blue
Remember now and remember always
I'll never stop loving you.
