Theme Song: Move by Thousand Foot Krutch <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YLqT9nXIDjE>

Thunder was created as an experiment and later caught by GUN at the age of 5 and moved to another laboratory. The scientists experimented on him alot and one of the experiments was to make a hedgion out of him. Ice made a potion for him, so he can transform back to a hedgehog whenever he wants. When Thunder and his friends tried to escape from the lab, his brother got shot. That's the reason why he went insane, but he knew that now he's responsible for Flame and Ice. From that day he was becoming more and more aggressive, so scientists locked him in a pod, putting him to sleep. After 10 years he awoke and killed everyone in the lab and escaped. Later he found his brother again.

Usually when he's asked about his past he doesn't say anything. If he becomes too ticked off by somebody he attacks the person. Shows no mercy to his victims.

Theme Song: Many Men(Wish Death On Me) by 50 Cent
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nkPSrQVPE6I>; Breathe Into Me by Red<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O07CiiSzv8A>; Easier to Run by Linkin
Park<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PTEASrPZ-j8>

Magneto was created as an experiment and later caught by GUN at the age of 14 and moved to another laboratory. He was the one who got beaten most of all the whole time. Maybe that's why he became such a good fighter in the end. He was and still is something like a father to Thunder, Flame and Ice and protected them in every possible way. When they were escaping he got shot, everybody thought he was dead, but he just fainted. Later, he was found by a gypsy clan and they befriended him fast. The reason Magneto's so chill is because of his berserker form. When he was 15 and his classmate got him mad his powers went out of control, all he could do is to watch how his own body attacks without his own will and kills his enemy. Since the day everyone treated him as an outcast.

Usually when he's asked about his past he doesn't say anything. If he becomes too ticked off by the most "curious" ones he attacks the person. Though he beats them up "easily" just so they'd know they shouldn't ask him the questions anymore.

First appears in: Experiments of Pain: No Love, No Melancholy, No Mercy

Voice actor: When adult: Shadow the Hedgehog (check THIS version of his voice at 6:05 and 6:45 <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iNwTVbLsBik&feature=related>)

When a teen: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dTF387pM3JA&feature=related>(At 0:03)

When a kid: Not yet decided

When berserker: Not yet found

About his creation: Created in 2006, in the autumn. Originally he was a normal Sonic style hedgehog and his eyes were orange. Got inspired by Shadow the Hedgehog and Sonic X, also Sonic's dark form, plus some X-Men as you can see, judging from his past. The reason I created him is because Thunder seemed to be uhm... empty and I wanted to delete him, heheh. So I created Magneto, just so Thunder will have a family and stay as a character. Now he's one of the main/leading characters, even if I don't draw him so often. I still luff him and he still rocks!XDD

Theme Song: Take Ya Home by Lil' Bow Wow

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VRVsbOJK0CY>

Flame was created as an experiment and later caught by GUN at the age of 4 and moved to another laboratory. The strangest thing about him is that his past haven't affected him in any way. Later he was locked in a pod, because he started to hurt people because of no reason at all. 10 years later when he was 14 he got released by Thunder and ran with him and Ice. He maybe acts sometimes perverted, but he won't do anything bad.

Usually when he's asked about his past he doesn't say anything. If he becomes too ticked off by the most "curious" ones he attacks the person. Though he beats them up "easily" just so they'd know they shouldn't ask him the questions anymore.

Personality: He's the most smartest/nerdy one of the bunch, even if he looks weak, he can fight good. Very friendly and sometimes can be overprotective.

Values most of all: Freedom

Theme Song: Manatu by Te Vaka <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jeTMJOZWLfA>

Ice was created as an experiment and later caught by GUN at the age of 3 and moved to another laboratory. After Magneto's death when he got locked to the cells along with Thunder and Flame, he could get out from the bars (being the youngest and smallest) and sometimes steal food for Flame. Thunder couldn't eat anything. Ice then made a potion for him, which made Thunder turn back to a hedgehog. Later he got locked in a pod along with Thunder and Flame, but got released by Thunder after 10 years at the age of 13.

Usually when he's asked about his past he doesn't say anything. If he becomes too ticked off by the most "curious" ones he attacks the person. Though he beats them up "easily" just so they'd know they shouldn't ask him the questions anymore.

Theme Song: A Woman Like Me by Beyonce <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UijzEZ-qZwk>

Dakota was created as an experiment. She's the onliest girl in the bunch, but that doesn't make her feel left out. When Thunder, Magneto, Flame and Ice got captured by GUN she was only 4 and still locked in the creation pod. So there was nobody to let her out. 11 years later Flame found her and let her out. The reason she's so strong is because the pod, she spent her life in was filled with a special chemical which was giving her strength, so she got too much of it. She was shocked to hear what happened to Thunder, Magneto, Flame and Ice in all those years, so she doesn't talk with them about their past too much. She also makes sure nobody will make Thunder mad, since she's good friends with him.
