Chapter 1 - what would you do for a friend

1 - what would you do for a friend

hi my name is phil and i got a story to tell my girlfriend whom i love really much and would hate to lose tried to kill her self.

that day a friend called me and told me what she did. i went and talked to her and asked if it was true and she said yes.. so i called 911. (emergency number) and told them every thing and i was really worried i would lose her. she is my every thing i would die just to keep her alive, i would take a bullet for her.

and i advise all you people that have friends that say they will hurt them selves or do majorly, to talk them through it, and if that doesnt seem to work tell someone that will do something for that person, if you truly love that person and dont want to lose that person and want to keep him/her in your life, tho he/she may hate you for a while they will get over it trust me i know. and they will understand some day that you did that out of love and compacion and will see what you did was that right thing to do.

i know from experance that you should NEVER take people you love for granted, if they need help HELP THEM if they need to be comforted then do it.

that night when she was in the hospital i wasnt told a thing and didnt know for a few days so i thought the worst that she had died. and i was thinking it was all my fault cus i didnt tell someone sooner, and didnt get her help and i didnt do the best i could of done. but she is alive and well i am happy to say. so if any one of your friends say they are going to kill them selves or hurt them selves DO SOMETHING dont think they are doing it for attention. cus one of these times you are going to be wrong and then you will have to live with out your best friend for ever, and live knowing that you could of told someone and got that person help

so if you can help then help someone
