Journey to Eternity

Start a journey to find... The brightest light...
Focus, don't stray... from the path.
To realize, the dreams, that find, a way,
Deep into your heart.
What are you waiting for? - It's a new day.

Guide me towards the light, King of eternity,
Kindness, wisdom, might,
And the land of destiny.

All will be alright,
For you are here with me,
Let my spirit find, Your infinity.

If there is peril,
Do not forget,
There shall be peace,
In the end.

For we are here because of you,
To discover, your treasures true.

Guide me towards the light, King of eternity,
Kindness, wisdom, might,
And the land of destiny.

All will be alright,
For you are here with me,
Let my spirit find, Your infinity.

When at last we see you come,
That means the journey has just begun...

Speak

Speak to me,
Tell me where to go,
Show me where to be.

Speak to me,
Let me hear your voice,
Guide me through the choice.

With your silent voice,
My spirit will rejoice.
Going through the road,
That you have bestowed.

Many miracles to find,
Because you are so kind.
Never stop, keep going,
Always moving, never slowing.

Speak to me,
Tell me where to go,
Show me where to be.

Speak to me,
Let me hear your voice,
Guide me through the choice.

It's an amazing life,
Not easy to be sure.
But even if there's strife,
I know your love is pure.

A wonderous mystery,
More amazing than we know.
As we go through history,
It will all come to show.

Speak to me,
Tell me where to go,
Show me where to be.

Speak to me,
Let me hear your voice,
Guide me through the choice.

Gifts

A ray of sun, a starry night,
Being guided by your light.
A pleasant scent, delicious taste,
A kind smile upon your face.

Forever more I will stay true,
For all these gifts I owe to you.

The seasons that come and go,
The many wonders that you show.
So many things that you give,
Blessings that fuel my will to live.

Forever more I will stay true,
For all these gifts I owe to you.

The might to move, to explore,
The path to always reach for more,
The road that leads right to your door,
Across the sea to distant shores.
In the vast wonder that is yours.

Forever more I will stay true,
For all these gifts I owe to you.

The skill to make a wish come true,
The energy that makes it so,
Beyond the skies of endless blue,
Always reaching out to you.

Forever more I will stay true,
For all these gifts I owe to you.

Forever more I will stay true,
For all these gifts I owe to you.
I owe to you, all these gifts, I owe to you...

Someday

Someday, one day, someday close,
I will find out, I will know,
What is that you try to say today.

Then I will see, the place that is,
So far away, but shining bright,
So bright that I can see,
The greatest glory is his.

Someday, one day, someday close,
Guide me never close the door,
To find that path that I adore.

Then I will know what is to know,
For those for whom life flows,
The most beautiful loving glow.

Someday, one day, someday close,
Guide us to peace, I implore,
For peace and glory are yours.

Then we will reach our destiny,
We will see your legacy,
Seven times seventy.

Someday, one day, someday close,
One day, a thousand years,
To this you must give ear,
Never let go of your believes...
Someday, one day, someday close,
It might be closer than we know.

Perseverance

Sometimes I wonder why it all happens,
Sometimes I wonder if it's just me,
I look forward and I see nothing,
Then I look back and I cannot flee.

It seems I've only moved a few steps,
Even if I've been running for so long.
No matter how hard I try,
Victory is far away,
I question what I've been doing so wrong.

Then I look ahead again,
And I see where I should be,
Then I look in my heart again,
And I see how blessed I've been.

Because it's not easy, but like a hero,
In a great adventure he'll rescue me.
Then victory will be, even greater, even greater,
Even greater and we'll be free.

So don't give up and don't give in,
Keep on going and persevere,
For the road is harsh and the distance great,
But with every step you get near.

Closer to the ultimate goal,
Closer, let blessings increase,
Closer to the one true savior,
Closer to the place of peace.

Because it's not easy, but like a hero,
In a great adventure he'll rescue me.
Then victory will be, even greater, even greater,
Even greater and we'll be free with him.

Mercy

I know I don't deserve it,
I know I'm not that strong,
But somehow I wish to carry on.

I know you won't desert me,
For all that I have failed,
A reason, a purpose, is there.

For there are many things,
That I yet need to do,
Only if you lead me they'll come true.

So I ask for forgiveness,
In your mercy infinite,
Kindness to soothe my heart.

With gentle mercy,
Lead me to the right path.
Lead past the river of tears,
Don't let me drown.

It's a hard path and I've stumbled again,

Yet again by undeserved mercy you're here.

Awaken, awaken, my heart cries out,
Awaken and run to catch the right road.

There you are, in such bright light,
It fills my heart, it gives me life.

It may not be my place to ask this,
So instead I beg you on my knees.
Forgive me for I know I have done wrong,
And help me, help me live through this.

Towards the right path again,
Moving forward once more,
Towards the dawn, towards the light,
Towards the end of the war.

Towards the shore, beyond the sea,
Where you are for eternity.
I wish to go, I wish to be,
Where you are for eternity.

So forgive me, this I beg,
Undeserved mercy, beset,
Please forgive me, this I beg,
My dear God, please bless.

Feeling Blessed

I feel it here,
I feel it deep,
It's all around,
As you guide your sheep.

Protection from disaster,
Safety from the dark,
My heart beats faster,
As stronger faith sparks.

Today and every day we fight,
To stay here on this road,
You always guide us with your might,
With all the blessings you bestow.

I feel it here,
I feel it deep,
It's all around,
As you guide your sheep.

The wonders I have seen,
The places where you've been,
I shall recall those scenes,
And follow the light stream.

Much brighter than the sun,
More precious than fine gold,
All those things are nothing,
If they are compared to you.

I feel it here,
I feel it deep,
It's all around,
As you guide your sheep.

You are my shield,
You are my sword,
You are my light, my victory.

I feel it here, I feel it deep,
I feel your love, I feel your care,
I feel that it is everywhere.

Never Give Up

I see the news all over here,
I know the time is near,
Determination at my side,
I set off to walk this path.

Never look back,
Never give up,
Never deny,
This faith of mine.

Today's the day,
To find the way,
To see the light,
Shining so bright.

Though the road may be long,
I know I can make all the way,
A firm pace walking strong,
With you at me side, I pray.

Never look back,
Never give up,
Never deny,
This faith of mine.

Today's the day,
To find the way,
To see the light,
Shining so bright

Obstacles like mountains,
Stand at my path,
But for my thirst a fountain,
I know I'll find at last.

Never look back,
Never give up,
Never deny,
This faith of mine.

Today's the day,
To find the way,
To see the light,
Shining so bright.

Inspiration

These ideas that you gift us,
Will guide us through our lives,
To make our times better here,
Until our purpose we realize.

To be as angels with you,
The end of the journey,
Upon a sky so blue,
Looking to an eternity.

To be made in your image,
That is the greatest honor,
Even if we can never be,

As strong, or wise, or swift.

You gave us a precious drop,
Of essence to save us.
May mercies never stop,
Father and son who protect us.

These ideas that you gift us,
Will guide us through our lives,
To make our times better here,
Until our purpose we realize.

To be as angels with you,
The end of the journey,
Upon a sky so blue,
Looking to an eternity.

Every day I see it,
I see it even now,
Ideas to shape this place,
With an artistic grace.

Everyday I see it,
I see it even now,
Inspiration for every thing,
Good we can enjoy.

These ideas that you gift us,
Will guide us through our lives,
To make our times better here,
Until our purpose we realize.

To be as angels with you,
The end of the journey,
Upon a sky so blue,
Looking to an eternity.

Forgive

Please forgive me,
Even if I made the same mistake,
Please, do not leave me,
Not now that my heart aches.

Please, please forgive me,

Today and also every other day.
Do not, do not leave me,
Alone under skies that are gray.

I will try, as always,
As I walk down infinite hallways,
In the maze that is life,
So full of glee and strife.

Don't ever let that light fade away,
Let me try again another day,
If I trip, if I fall, if I call with my heart,
You will be there with me doing the part,
That only you can do, my God.

One after another, day after day,
Trying to find the way,
Day after day, carrying the same weight,
Trying not to go astray.

It's something I can't carry,
All on my own,
While in this world I tarry,
Trying to go home.

I will try, as always,
As I walk down infinite hallways,
In the maze that is life,
So full of glee and strife.

Don't ever let that light fade away,
Let me try again another day,
If I trip, if I fall, if I call with my heart,
You will be there with me doing the part,
That only you can do, my God.

Precious Arts

Some can sing to him,
Others can see things,
In the world within their dreams.

Some dance to tune of music,
That only those who are blessed can hear.

Hidden talents, hidden gifts,
We discover them, as through life we drift.

Until we drift no more,
Until we know where to go,
Until those gifts we can call,
For miracles big and small.

Dreams and songs,
Guiding us to where we belong.
Messages that come to us,
Telling us what will come to pass.

Sweet words from the heart,
Listen to the sound of harps,
The voice that keeps us from harm,
And helps us reach all we can.

Some dance, some sing,
And there are those who can see things,
Hidden secrets in whispers,
And in the world of their dreams.

Words that reach the heart,
Sweet as the sound of harps,
Hidden secrets in whispers,
For our brothers and sisters.

Amazing gifts that we have,
To help us do what we can,
To show what is in our hearts,
These are our precious arts.

Light

Darkness may be all around,
Driving you into the ground,
But if you gaze into the sky, far across the land,
You'll see someone who will give you the courage to stand.

Do you see the light?
The one that shines so bright,
Reaching far and wide...

There's no where to hide,

Step into the light,
Let it take you far...

Even if you may cry,
A little at the start,
The light will heal your heart.

Find a path to walk,
Don't ever give up,
Do you see the cup,
That's so full of love?

Out of the darkness, into the light,
Following a bright beacon take flight,
Past the clouds and into the skies,
Endlessly carried by his might.

Find a path to walk, don't ever give up,
Out of the darkness and into the light.

I'm Here To Stay

Of all the ways, of all the paths,
That I could ever hope to walk,
This is the only one where I don't look back.

It may be long, it may be hard,
And I must always be on guard,
But this is the one path, where I will never look back.

I don't regret walking this way,
I don't regret seeking you each day,
You're always there when skies are gray,
You're always there, I'm here to stay.
(I'm here to stay, I'm here to stay.)

Of all the paths, of all the streets,
This is the one that my heart seeks.
Although mistakes I may repeat,
Even if I suffer defeats,
I'm here to stay, I'm here to stay.

For it is this way that I go,
The only one that leads to you,

The only one that holds the truth,
The many truths I need to know.

I don't regret walking this way,
I don't regret seeking you each day,
You're always there when skies are gray,
You're always there, I'm here to stay.
(I'm here to stay, I'm here to stay.)

Do not let me go astray,
Or my determinations sway,
For I wish to, reach you one day,
Eternally with love and peace,
For this each day I pray.
(Each day I pray, each day I pray.)

I don't regret walking this way,
I don't regret seeking you each day,
I'll reach you, if you show the way,
(I'm here to stay, I'm here to stay.)

Don't Forget

Don't you ever forget,
Don't you ever forget,
And you will never be forgotten.

Work and labor,
Every day as if it was your last.
Then you'll be able,
To look back and smile at the past.

For those who evil cannot bear,
For those who try the heard claims,
For those who don't give in to despair,
For those whose faith is not in vain.

You won't be forsaken,
Have patience, don't be faint.
One day you will awaken,
In joy without constraints.

Don't you ever forget,
Don't you ever forget,
And you will never be forgotten.

With enthusiasm tread,
Down the road of light,
All your worries will be shed,
As true faith takes flight.

Don't you ever forget,
Don't you ever forget,
And you will never be forgotten.

Don't you ever forget,
Don't you ever forget,
And you will never be forgotten.

Don't forget the joy,
Don't forget the love,
Then you will rejoice,
When what must happen comes to pass.

Don't forget the joy,
Don't forget the love,
Don't forget that God,
Has you in his heart.

Don't you ever forget,
Don't you ever forget,
And you will never be forgotten.

Thank You

Isn't it ironic?
Makes me think,
Isn't it ironic?
That so many words come,
And then they are so few.

Let me tell you something,
I just wanted to say,
Thank you for today,
And for tomorrow too.

For there are many words,
From a broken heart,
And there are many words.
For those torn apart.

There are many words.
When I want from you,
But there are few words,
When it's time to say thank you.

So please excuse my silence,
I'll make up for it now,
I will not be forgetful,
I'll try to be just as loud.
When I call out for a choice,
And when I call out to rejoice.
Thank you I will tell you,
At the top of my voice.

For there are many words,
From a broken heart,
And there are many words.
For those torn apart.
There are many words.
When I want from you,
But there are few words,
When it's time to say thank you.

So here are all these words,
For a time of joy,
Here are all these words,
For I do rejoice.
Hear me when I plead,
And hear me now too,
For I come to say thank you.
I come to say thank you.

For there are many words,
From a broken heart,
And there are many words,
For those torn apart.
There are many words.
When I want from you,
But there are few words,
When it's time to say thank you.

It is time I said thank you,
I have come to say I thank you.

Thank you for my life,
Thank you for my joy,
Thank you for the blessings,

In which I do rejoice.

It is time I said thank you,
I have come to say I thank you.

Thanks Giving

Today is that day,
That we call Thanks Giving,
Today is that day,
To reflect on all we have.
In the present and the past,
And for the future hope,
Happiness envelopes,
Our every step every day,
Even on a steep slope.
He will always help you cope,
Never ever give up hope.

Today is that day,
That we call Thanks Giving,
Today is that day,
To take some time for peace,
And make stress decrease.
To spend some time with delight,
Thinking of the brightest light.

Today is that day,
That we call Thanks Giving,
Today is that day,
That exists in every day,
Even if only today,
Is when thank we come to say.
But we mustn't forget,
That indeed every day,
Is a Thanks Giving day.

Purpose

Little details,
Don't let yourself forget,
Try to do the best you can.
Nothing's too small,

Not to deserve attention,
With good intentions,
To fulfill a part of his plan.

They say old habits die hard,
It might take time to find all the shards,
That form the picture deep within your heart,
To realize what is his master plan.

There is a purpose in all that you see,
There is a reason for all of this to be,
From the truth we must never flee,
Please guide me, I ask God on my knees.

There is a purpose in all that you see,
There is a reason for all of this to be,
There is a cause, even if we might not understand,
Right away, the grandness of his plan.

Yet you can be sure that nothing is for naught,
For there is a reason for where we have been brought,
There is a purpose that lives inside our souls,
It's all for the cause to reach a certain goal.

So you must never doubt,
That there is a reason to be here and now.
You must never doubt,
There is a lesson,
There is a cause,
That there is a purpose,
To be here and now.

Listen

Sometimes we do not understand,
Sometimes we have to take a stand,
On the road to something grand,
On the road to the promised land.

If you look well beyond what you see,
And pay attention to what you feel,
Deep within your heart he will speak,
He'll light up the way to what you seek.

Trust even when the reasons are not plain,

And that trust, believe it, won't be in vain,
Don't ever let your faith begin to wane,
Stay strong even at times of great strain.

If you look well beyond what you see,
Listen to the rhythm of your heart beat,
Hear the words spoken in the wind,
Let them reach your voice and sing.

Life is a puzzle, we alone can't solve,
But we must never, ever give up hope,
Even though problems may come and may go,
Eventually, one day we'll see, it'll all be solved.

If you look well beyond what you see,
Listen close well beyond what most hear,
One day you will feel like you're free,
From anything that may cause a tear.

Listen now and later understand,
Why there's a time to take a stand,
Listen and follow the great plan,
Don't ever let go of your savior's hand,

If you look well beyond what you see,
If you search beyond what most would seek,
If you don't let your resolve become weak,
If you keep trying every day of the week.

You will find what only a few can keep,
You will feel joy that makes your heart leap,
Deep within, you'll hear the hidden words of the wind, Finally, of light and joy you will hear him speak.

xoxox xox xoxox xox xoxox xox xoxox xox xoxox xox xoxox

Blessings Every Day

If you look close enough,
Blessings are everywhere,
If you take the time to see,
The many sources that blessings bring.
For it is all around, his love,
It is all around, in all that makes us smile.

The company of good friends,
The happy moments that we share,

A joy that will never cease,
For eternal is its source,
When he reigns in endless peace,
When the preset story finds its course.

Even though this world may not be everlasting,
Even if there is much to find in contrasting,
The future that is there at the end of the road,
The goal for which we must never be slowed...

If you look close enough,
Blessings are everywhere,
If you take the time to see,
The many sources that blessings bring.
For it is all around, his love,
It is all around, in all that makes us smile.

So don't forget, how much greater it'll be,
If you get the chance to feel that joy for eternity,
Don't give up and remember what awaits,
In such a much grander scale than what we enjoy today.

For if you look close enough,
Blessings truly are everywhere,
If you take the time to see,
The many sources that blessings bring.
Then you'll know it is all around, his love...
It is in all that makes us smile.

Good News

Once upon a time,
News of something grand,
Was spread all over the world.

A melody sublime,
Reached the ears of man,
And it was the best thing they heard.

For there was good news,
Very good news,
News that we have a chance,

There is good news,
Do not be confused,

Stay firm in your stance.

They knew, just as we should know,
They could be saved,
For His sacrifice that day.

They knew, just as we should know,
That no soul shall be enslaved,
As long as there is faith.

As long as there is faith,
That one day He will return,
For that day we yearn,
For that day our courage burns.

As long as there is faith,
That one day He will return,
After many lessons learned,
We'll get the reward He earned... for us.

Once upon a time,
News of something grand,
Was spread all over the world.

It was the word of Someone kind,
News that we have a chance,
That there's a reason to survive,
It is the word for which we crave,
It tells us that we can be saved... with faith.
With faith... in Him.

Beyond Belief

It's amazing, the good news,
That I have come to see.
Life can be a pain some times,
But not if you're with me.

It's a comfort, reassuring,
The truth that I have seen,
I'm past the point of belief,
I simply know you're here with me.

Truth is truth,
No matter what,

I am glad,
That this is what,
It turned out to be.

I'm past the point of belief,
I simply know you're here with me.

Every day a new challenge brings,
That won't stop as long as the Earth spins,
But that's alright, I have the confidence,
Because I really need no further evidence.

I'm past the point of belief,
I simply know you're here with me.

Trials may come and they may go,
But doubts won't come anymore.
This is something that I know,
I know, I feel, I sense, you're here with me.

Truth is really truth,
No matter how it seems,
Life is what it is,
I'm glad you're here with me.

Past the point of not knowing,
Past point of having doubts,
Not carried by blowing winds,
I see now what it's about.

I'm past the point of belief,
I simply know you're here with me.

It's a comfort, reassuring,
The truth that I have seen,
I'm past the point of belief,
I simply know you're here with me.

I know you're here with me.

Time

Time is always flying away,
While we're trying to find the way,
The one true path that leads to forever more,

Searching through it all, for the key to the door.

Life may be short,
But we must learn to use,
The time that we have,
To do what matters most.

There is time to admire wonders,
There is time to concentrate,
Time to face the trials harder,
And there is time to celebrate.

In this life from God we got,
There are times of gold,
There is time for a lot,
If you just don't give up.

There will be times of doubt,
That might make you frown,
Dissipate the cloud,
Don't in your worries drown.

There will be times of sorrow,
But you must not forget,
That the times of joy though short,
Will far out-weight the rest.

There is time to admire wonders,
There is time to concentrate,
Time to face the trials harder,
And there is time to celebrate.

In this life from God we got,
There are times of gold,
There is time for a lot,
If you just don't give up.

There will be time for victory,
A time worth to achieve,
But first you must get across,
The vast trial sea.

There is time to admire wonders,
There is time to concentrate,
Time to face the trials harder,
And there is time to celebrate.

In this life from God we got,
There are times of gold,
There is time for a lot,
If you just don't give up,
All you have to do is start.

Don't forget the times of joy,
Will far out-weight the rest,
All you have to do is start...

There will be time for victory,
A time worth to achieve,
All you have to do is start,
On the way, to Eternity.

Every Detail Counts

One by one little drops,
Can lead to a giant flood,
What's not much leads to more,
For harmony or discord.

Every detail counts,
Every detail is a step back,
Or a step forward,
As in life we move onward.

Every detail counts,
Like the many drops of water that make the sea,
Like the many stars above that light the night,
Like all the little things that can make the future bright.
Every detail counts, every detail counts for Him.

When there are days that seem dark,
You have to look for His mark,
Don't let trials tear you apart,
Always keep faith in your heart.

His blessing will never be gone,
It will be there at dusk and dawn,
You just have to look and see,
Beyond what it may seem.

Every detail counts,
Like the many drops of water that make the sea,

Like the many stars above that light the night,
Like all the little things that can make the future bright.
Every detail counts, every detail counts for Him.

It's in the laughter that I hear,
In a sweet delicious taste,
It's far and it's near,
Waiting just beyond the test.

In the way you look at me,
With the eyes of a friend,
In the way I feel His love,
And know it will never end.

Every detail counts,
Like the many drops of water that make the sea,
Like the many stars above that light the night,
Like all the little things that can make the future bright.
Every detail counts for Him...
So every detail counts for me...

The Words of my Heart

There are times when I don't know,
What to say, how to show,
The many things I want you to know.

Yet somehow, while I try to react,
Grasping in the dark for the light of your plan,
You reach out, like only you can,
And you hear the words from my heart.

Only you know my deepest thoughts,
Only you can see the hidden facts,
The present, the future, the past,
The dreams that I've yet to redact.

You take the words I cannot speak,
You know the meaning that I seek,
I ask you, to guide me,
Help me be the best I could be.

Even when there are times when I don't know,
How to what is on my mind show,
I want you to know, and I know you know,

I will never let you go.

Only you know my deepest thoughts,
Only you can see the hidden facts,
The present, the future, the past,
The dreams that I've yet to redact.
You hear the words from my heart.

You reach me like only you can,
With you near I will never fall apart,
You're the greatest treasure I could have,
And you hear the words of my heart.

For Only you know my deepest thoughts,
And Only you can see the hidden facts,
The present, the future, the past and beyond,
All the dreams that I've yet to redact.
You hear the words from my heart...

Savior

Another day comes to an end,
Another chapter of the journey,
The days go by, they blend,
As I look for guidance in my attorney.

As He sits there, at the right hand,
I ask him what is it that He has planned,
As the hourglass is emptied of its sand,
And I've barely moved, hardly understand.

The time has come, to face the truth,
I cannot wait any longer, I look to You.
It feels like I've gone no further,
Than the same place where I started.

Yet if I glance into the past,
I see the path left behind,
I see the long way that I walked,
It's written in the sky,
And I hear your words in my mind.

Another chapter of the journey,
I seek the light of my attorney,
It may feel like I'm moving slowly,

But I know that I'll get there surely.

For it is You who guides me,
It is You who defends me,
And I know you understand,
What it's like to live in this land.

Another chapter of the story,
The novel written by the Glory,
And there at his right,
Forever sits my knight.

Broken Chains

As the world declines,
What's bad is called good,
What's good is called bad,
And I can only hope that,
The light you do find.

Break the chains that bind you,
Let the truth guide you,
There's so much you're missing on,
To such small things hold on to.

Don't listen to the angry crowd,
Listen to your heart,
Don't listen to their ignorance,
Move forward with perseverance.

For as the world declines,
Admits the turmoil you will find,
A light shining bright,
A whisper saying don't give up.

Break the chains that bind you,
Let the truth guide you,
There's so much you're missing on,
To such small things hold on to.

As the world fall apart,
A voice beacons from afar,
Then you realize it's not so far,
All along He was in your heart.

Break the chains that bind you,
Let the truth guide you,
There's so much you're missing on,
To such small things hold on to.

Break the chains that bind you,
Let the truth guide you,
There's someone beside you,
That will not abandon,
There's so much you're missing on,
True treasures to hold on to.

Blessed Lullaby

The sun set comes,
Into night the day becomes,
With the sound of distant horns,
I hear the wind start to hum.

A lullaby, of blessings sweet,
As the stars the night greets.
I know you're here, watching me,
Keep me safe, keep me free.

Another day, another night,
So many wonders from your might,
Today again, on my knees,
I beg you please bless me.

Forgive mistakes that I make,
Make sure tomorrow I do wake.
Give me a day that's filled with,
The chance for you to be my smith.

The shining stars, the moon light,
With prayers I bid you good night.
The sun rise comes, a day you write,
Upon the parchment that I cite.

Let me walk your path today,
And also any other day.
Forward a step, sometimes back two,
I draw my breath and I seek you.

I move, again upon my feet,

I'm carried softly by your wings.
I stand here and to you sing,
Ready to face what your path brings.

Don't know how many steps I took,
But I do hope I'm closer to you,
And so again, sleep I embrace,
With vivid dreams about your grace.

And with the sound of distant horns,
I hear the wind start to hum.
A lullaby, of blessings sweet,
As our savior my heart greets.

Overwhelming

All at once, I can't hold on,
But I'm not letting go, I'm never letting go...

There are days when, the sun doesn't seem to shine,
And it feels like, the mountain of life is too steep to climb,
But I know that, even if it seems hopeless,
Everything will be alright in time...

A ray of light, piercing the darkness,
A drop of hope in a flood of despair,
A breath of fresh air when it's least expected,
Bringing the knowledge that we're still connected.

All at once, I can't hold on,
But I'm not letting go, I'm never letting go...

No matter how many things may come and go,
No matter how grim life seems I won't lose hope,
There's always a light, that's shining bright,
If it looks dim from afar, take a look at where you are,
Don't you ever give up the fight and get closer,
Then once you're near, doubts disappear,
The light is so bright, the might revealed,
Before you know it, you'll be healed.

All at once, but I can hold on,
I'm not letting go, I'm never letting go...

Looking back, the past overwhelming,

I see just how far I've come,
So glad I didn't stop back then,
Or I wouldn't be what I have become.

All at once, but I can hold on,
Here I stand at a brand new dawn,
For you have brought me this far,
I know I will never give up,
For it is with me you are,
Here with me you always are...

Eternity

Sometimes I fear that things won't last,
Sometimes I wonder will this last forever?
It seems that good things are way too short,
Is there something that is forevermore?

Then I see, that it's okay,
Eternity is what awaits,
This world falls, it fades away,
Eternity is what awaits.

Through each day, that fades away,
Through each memory that will never leave,
Through a life like this, with its ups and downs,
Through the centuries towards eternity.

Now I see, that it's okay,
Eternity is what awaits,
This world falls, it fades away,
Eternity is what awaits.

Never lose hope, never let go,
Even if this day fades, he will recall,
No minute is in vain, today it's not too late,
You'll find a way to let your life begin.

Do you see, that it's okay,
Eternity is what awaits,
This world falls, it fades away,
Eternity is what awaits.

Start on the path,
That truly lasts,

Don't fade await,
For eternity... is what awaits.
For eternity... is what awaits.

Wonderful Day

Today is going to be a wonderful day,
For You are here with me.
Filled with hope for all to see,
I sing a song to thee.

For You have given me so many things,
To look forward to day by day,
Because of You I have so many dreams,
That will come true if with You I stay.

I have faith, I believe,
That today will be a lovely day.

Tomorrow is going to be a wonderful day,
For You will be with me,
Today, tomorrow and everyday,
I will believe in thee.

Across the sky the sun goes,
The hours pass, the twilight's close.
The daylight fades, the night awakes.
I see Your blessing in so many ways.

I hear You call,
And I know...
I know...

Each day is going to be a wonderful day,
As long as You're with me,
With You at my side, I'll never sway,
For You have set me free.

I will go on to live,
Each wonderful day,
With all that I can give,
For with You I wish to stay.
For You I'll live each day.

Treasure

More precious than diamonds,
Shines brighter than gold,
The faith I hold on to,
The joy I behold.

Let every day bring,
What makes my life shine,
Please give me the things,
That come from your light.

The treasures of heaven,
That last forever,
Ties no one will sever,
The sweetest endeavor.

More precious than diamonds,
Shines brighter than gold,
The faith I hold on to,
The joy I behold.

Let every day bring,
Your infinite blessing,
To you I will sing,
Your name confessing.

Let every day bring,
Blessings from the king,
To whom my heart sings.

More precious than diamonds,
Shines brighter than gold,
The faith I hold on to,
The joy I behold.

The treasures of heaven,
That last forever,
We're always together,
Of salvation the bearer,
Eternally and forever.

Something so Much Better

The world ends,
It falls apart,
Like yesterday,
Again today.

Then I look at the big picture,
That's right before my eyes,
I look at the silver lining,
At the feelings deep inside.

I can rebuild this day of mine,
Reshape the pieces in little time.
With your help, with your hope,
The silver lining I behold.

Silver so bright, it shines like stars,
I had to search to find my heart,
Then I see it, what lasts forever,
I believe it's... Something so much better.

Believe that it will get better,
Then you'll see the hope between the cracks,
Believe, don't give up your forever,
And you'll find the answer, bright as a star.

The world ends, it falls apart,
It's okay, you're in my heart.
Like yesterday, again today,
This new challenge I will face.

I can rebuild this day of mine,
Reshape the pieces in little time.
With your help, with your hope,
The silver lining I behold.
It's something so much better.

I believe, I've found my forever,
I believe, I won't let go of you, never.
I believe I've found...
Something so much better!

Guiding Light

Turn on the light,
Reach for the sky,

He will guide you.

Don't let the lamp burn out, reach out,
And if you fall, he will catch you.

Go far beyond,
What you had thought,
Go and behold,
What you have sought,
The light that guides you.

Let the light never fade,
Let the holy lamp lit stay,
Go as far as you can go,
Find out what you must know.

Turn on the light,
Reach for the sky,
He will guide you.

Don't let the lamp burn out, reach out,
And if you fall, he will catch you.

Walk without doubts,
Without worries,
Trust what you believe,
And step steady.

You will find, what you must
If your heart really trusts,
For his light, it guides,
Let your faith shine bright.

Turn on the light,
Reach for the sky,
He will guide you.

Don't let the lamp burn out, reach out,
And if you fall, he will catch you.

Lifted up you will find,
The light most kind,
He will guide you.

Turn on the light,
Reach for the sky.

Stuff Happens

Sometimes, sometimes I can't believe it,
The things that happen in my life.
I wonder how I can achieve it,
The burden I've made is not light.

How can I make, such silly mistakes?
Brain, how come you don't speak up?
At least not until it's too late...

When I tell the stories,
I don't make them up,
And you may wonder what's up.

My head's in the clouds,
It's okay, don't freak out,
Don't cry for today,
Tomorrow is another day.

In the end, nobody's perfect,
Just because you trip,
And you can't reset,
To the start of the day,
Doesn't mean you're not okay.

Pick up the pieces,
Glue them together,
Wrap them in tape if you must.
Paint over cracks,
Don't fall apart,
Time will continue to pass,
It will be the good memories that last.

Sometimes, sometimes I can't believe it,
The things that happen in my life.
I wonder how I can achieve it,
Getting the things I want,
Finding my own way to shine.

Then the answer comes,
It rings and resonates,
Things will still occur,
But I know what to do,
I've found the answer here with you.

Sometimes, sometimes I can't believe it,
The things that happen in my life.
The things that shape who I am,
I won't give up.

Perfect Peace

Thou shalt keep the perfect peace,
Through the storm and through the darkness,
Thou shalt keep undying hope,
Guide my heart out of the darkness.

Perfect peace,
Can only be,
Ever achieved,
If You're with me.

The light of hope,
That you bestow,
The light of hope,
Will break the darkness.

Here I stand, the wind howls around me,
I see the faces of those who stand against me,
Here I am, I give this life to You,
For I know that You will... You will...
You will carry me through.

Perfect peace,
Can only be,
Ever achieved,
If You're with me.

The light of hope,
That you bestow,
The light of hope,
Will break the darkness.

Perfect peace, perfect peace,
Deep inside, trust unbound,
Held back by nothing...

Darkness falls all around,
Yet all I see is your light,

Shining brighter!

Perfect peace,
Can only be,
Ever achieved,
If You're with me.

The light of hope,
That you bestow,
The light of hope,
Will break the darkness.

Stay in Light

Stay in light,
Don't let it, let it, go out of your sight.
Stay awake,
Don't let your spirit slumber past the day,
In which awaits,
An epic trial that is followed by,
Treasures true,
Don't let it, let it, don't let it escape.

Today it could be the day,
The day when you move on,
Maybe when you least expect it,
You'll have to be strong to hold on.

One step closer,
A door opens,
Look around.
The day is waking,
Heaven is waiting,
For you to raise above the ground.

Stay in light,
Don't let it, let it, go out of your sight.
Stay awake,
Don't let your spirit slumber past the day,
In which awaits,
An epic trial that is followed by,
Treasures true,
Don't let it, let it, don't let it escape.

One step closer,

One more day,
One more opportunity,
Let the door open,
Be ready to cross it,
Ready for eternity.

Stay in light,
Stay in His light...

Thank You

Thank You for everything,
Everything You've given me.
Thank You for everything,
Everything You've done for me.
I don't say it enough,
Though the thought is in my heart.

As I climb up the glass stairs,
Knowing that You are someone who cares,
I look back and see where I've been,
So far away, where did I begin?

Though in the past it felt like I was going so far,
Now it feels like I'm floating to the stars.
The way that was so hard, is easier now,
Can this be? Can't help but wonder how?

The answer comes to me,
As I continue on,
You have set me free,
From what held me back.

The weight on my back,
Has become wings,
With which You carry me.

The long road,
No longer seems so hard,
We won't be kept apart.

Challenges come to me,
But You guide my hand,
Your soldier of peace I will be,
With You here I will stand.

Thank You for everything,
Everything You've given me,
Everything You've done for me.
It is You who carries my heart home.
You're here with me, this I always know.

Thank You for everything,
Everything You've given me,
Everything You've done for me.
For coming this far,
Never being apart.
For guiding my life,
For Your pleasant light.
Thank You for everything,
I thank You, my King.

Beyond Temporary

Take me in your arms,
Spread your wings, fly high,
This pain is only temporary.

I'll do what I can,
Protected by all your might,
Pain is only temporary.

When it's all done,
When it's all gone,
I'll be able to look back and say,
That by your side I always stayed.

Take me in your arms,
Spread your wings, fly high,
To the light, to the endless sky.

I'll do what I can,
Protected by all your might,
For the light, I'll reach the endless sky.

When it's all done,
When it's all gone,
I'll look back and say,
By your side I always stayed.

When it's all done,
When it's all gone,
I'll see your face,
In the light of glory stay.

When it's all done,
When it's all gone,
Pain is only temporary...
You are forever!

With Me

Nothing will hurt me,
For God is here...

God is with me,
Christ is with me,
There is nothing to fear.

He who protects me,
He who saves me,
No evil shall come near...!

Nothing will hurt me,
For God is here...

Your light will cut through the dark,
Your power stronger than any beast,
The dark lion will retreat, for you are here,
You are here...!

God is with me,
Christ is with me,
There is nothing to fear.

He who protects me,
He who saves me,
No evil shall come near...!
For God is here...
God is here...!

Always here, never apart,

Guiding me to your light,
Darkness sinks, evil retreats,
For God is in my warrior heart.

God is with me,
Christ is with me,
There is nothing to fear.

Liberate

Liberate, those who walk, in the dark.
Show yourself, in their eyes.

Let them have, the blessing that I have,
To hear you, to feel you,
To know you understand.

The first step is the hardest,
For the blessings to harvest.
Do not wait to get started,
Let His love reach further.

Liberate, those who walk, in the dark.
Those who can't, see your light,
Show yourself, in their eyes.

Let them have, the blessing that I have,
To hear you, to feel you, to know you understand.

If you start on your way,
Through the path every day,
Soon the light you will find,
You will know that He is kind.

Liberate, those who walk, in the dark.
Those who can't, see your light,
Show yourself in their eyes.

Show yourself in their hearts,
Let them learn who you are.
Show yourself in their lives.
Set them free from their plight.

Liberate, liberate, those who walk, in the dark.

Let them all see your light,
Show yourself in their eyes, in their hearts, in their lives.
Liberate, liberate, liberate...

Protect me, don't let go,
Keep guiding my hand.

Protect me when I,
Do not understand,
Protect me from letting,
Any doubts stand.

Protect me from those,
Who use your name in vain.
Protect me from those,
Who think of personal gain.
Protect me from those,
Who are not sincere.
Protect me,
Make sure I'm never like them.

Protect me from falling Into despair,
Protect me from failing,
To always be fair.

Protect me from not,
Having perfection,
Let it not prevent me,
From entering your nation.

Protect me from those,

Who use your name in vain.
Protect me from those,
Who think of personal gain.
Protect me from those,
Who are not sincere.

Protect me from me,
And set my heart free.
Protect me from me,
And guide me to thee.

Thanks for the Present and Future

I give you thanks,
For all the good things,
That have happened,
And the good things,
That will happen,
I give you thanks.

I give you thanks,
For the days that come and go,
For the approaching tomorrow,
For all the things I will know.
I give you thanks.

For my friends,
For my freedom,
To transcend,
To your kingdom.

For your light,
For your might,
For the sight,
Of what's right.

For the your strength,
During battle,
In the length,
Of your road.

For your voice,
In the chapel,
For by choice,
You bestowed,

All your love,
All your guidance,
And my joy overloads.

I give you thanks,
I give you thanks.

For all the good things,
That have happened,
And the good things,
That will happen,
And the things,
That by your light,
Will be transformed.
I give you thanks.

I give you thanks,
For all my days with you are brighter,
For all the days that will come after,
I give you thanks.

Remember Christmas

Remember, remember,
What we celebrate today,
Remember, remember,
Who was born today.

Trees and fiction are ok,
A little amusement is ok,
But don't forget, don't forget,
Don't forget what we celebrate.

Remember, remember,
What we celebrate today,
Remember, remember,
Who was born today.

Sparkling lights,
Through the night,
Raise your cup,
But don't be such,
Don't be such,
That you'll forget.

Remember, remember,
What we celebrate today,
Remember, remember,
Who was born today.

Let the true meaning,
Shine in your heart,
Harmony and giving,
Don't forget to do your part.

Remember, remember,
What we celebrate today,
Remember, remember,
Who was born today.

Remember, remember,
Don't ever forget,
Remember, remember,
Recall and celebrate,
Remember, remember,
Remember Christmas day.

Pray in Happiness

Pray for hope,
Pray for strength,
Pray for happiness,
And pray in happiness.

The skies are gray,
The storm rages on,
For light we pray,
Until dawn comes.

Deep blue skies,
The sun shines bright,
Don't forget,
Pray in happiness.

Pray for hope,
Pray for strength,
Pray for joy,
And pray in joy,
Pray in happiness.

Through the bad times,
We pray for strength,
We pray for hope,
Do we pray for thanks?

Through the good times,
Life is a joy,
Blessings to enjoy,
Pray in happiness.

Pray for hope,
Pray for strength,
Pray when everything's ok.

Pray for a better day,
Pray for a day like today.

Pray if you need,
Pray if you have,
Pray in happiness.

Storm

When the clouds cover the sky,
When the storm takes the night,
I know I'll be alright.

Worry not,
Don't be distraught,
Take the shield He brought.

Invincible ally,
Intensify, magnify,
The power of the light.

Stand firm, stand strong,
Fearlessly, face the storm.

When the clouds cover the sky,
You may be surrounded,
Let your skill be compounded.

When the storm takes the night,
Unleash your sharp sword,
Let it strike a chord.

Stand firm, stand strong,
Fearlessly, face the storm.
Victory is in His hand,
Raise your sword for His land.

Stand firm, stand strong,
Fearlessly, face the storm.

God is with me,
God will take care of me.

My Only Possibility

I see it in my dreams,
I see it in my memories,
I see it, what could be,
I think of possibilities.

The black lion, it comes close,
Red eyes glowing in the night,
It walks by, it surrounds,
I pray for you, my light.

It backs down, you're around,
I cannot be harmed by it,
It retreats, you're with me,
This is my possibility.

For all the nightmares,
That didn't come,
For all the darkness,
That didn't fall.
For all the things,
That could've come,
You, stayed with me,
My only possibility.

I see it in my dreams,
I see it in my memories,
I see it, what could be,
When think of possibilities.

What else can I chose?
So many possibilities,

But only one comes close,
My only possibility.

For all the nightmares,
That didn't come,
For all the darkness,
That didn't fall.
For all the things,
That could've come,
You, stayed with me,
My only possibility.

I see it in my dreams,
I see it in my memories,
I see it, what could be,
When think of possibilities.

Of all the choices I could make,
Only one choice is here to stay,
One choice that never will change,
My only possibility...

This Day, Every Day

This is the day
The day of remembrance,
A day when to,
Our father he returned.

This is the day,
The day to remember,
All that, he did,
All done for our sake.

This is the day,
This is the day,
A day unlike and like,
Every other day.

This is the day,
When time seemed to stand still,
This was a day to wait.

A day to pray,
A day to wait,

A day for greatness,
A day for faith.

This is the day,
This is the day,
A day unlike and like,
Every other day.

This is the day of his return,
This is the day we await.
This is that day, when all was accomplished,
A new promise made, no more tears shed.

This is the day,
This is the day,
A day unlike and like,
Every other day.

Think of those days,
Think of today,
A day unlike and like,
Every other day.

Every Day

Every day I see your blessings,
Every day I feel your presence,
How can I serve you?
How to say thank you?

Every day I figure out,
Something I've seen for a while,
My life is with you,
Now I can feel you.

Every day, for all my life,
Every day, for all of time.
Every day, here with me,
Every day, you free me.

Every day I see your blessings,
Every day I feel your presence,
How can I serve you?
How to say thank you?

Every day that has passed,
As life goes by so fast,
Every day I recall,
Every day I hear your call.

Every day, for all my life,
Every day, for all of time.
Every day, here with me,
Every day, you free me.

Every day I see your blessings,
Every day I feel your presence,
How can I serve you?
How to say thank you?

Everything that you have done,
Far and wide the net you cast,
Every day that is to come,
Endless love that is so vast.

How can I serve you?
How to say thank you?
My life is with you,
Now I can feel you.

How can I serve you?
How to say thank you?
For all my life,
For all of time.

I see your blessings,
I feel your presence,
Every day, every day,
Here to stay.

Fearlessly

If you are with me, who is against me?
If you comfort me, none could destroy me...

Nothing to fear, nothing to fear, God is near...

Let the wind blow, let the storm grow,
Nothing will come near my soul.

Let the skies crack, darkness attack,
We won't be subdued,
With faith renewed,
My bright light won't fade to black.

Nothing to fear, nothing to fear, God is near...

In His castle, that here towers,
I am empowered, in this hour.

Let thunder crash, let lightning flash,
Nothing will come near my soul.

All the world, can do it's worse,
Loyalty won't be coerced.
Show your power so immense,
Light shield of the universe.

Nothing to fear, nothing to fear, God is near...

Let us stand tall, when the stars fall,
Fearless, strong, your sword in my hand,
Determined march, into your land.

Nothing to fear, nothing to fear, God is here...

Times of Triumph

I thank you, I thank you,
For these times of peace,
Here we are, souls free,
When life is like a dream.

Don't forget, don't forget,
How you came here,
For you are, you are,
Always, always, near.

The sun shines, the day bright,
The stars light up the path,
It's all from His might,
This is the aftermath.

I thank you, I thank you,
For these times of peace,

Here we are, souls free,
When life is like a dream.

Let the ideas flow,
Let our gifts show,
The world ours for the taking,
With you, never breaking.

Let us go, to the next,
Let us see, do our best,
Let us fly in the stars,
Don't forget who we are.

I thank you, I thank you,
For these times of peace,
Here we are, souls free,
When life is like a dream.

This world you gave us,
In your image made us,
We thank you now,
For giving us this triumph.
