Chapter 1 - The song

2

1 - The song

((Description: Basically, it's a Chazz Princeton (from Yu-gi-oh GX) and dueling version of the song "All that Jazz" from the musical Chicago. It has the same tune and whatever, just different words. Also, I know that this isn't much about Chazz and it's more about just regular dueling, but "Jazz" does rhyme with "Chazz". Lol. Since he likes dueling and the spirit of the words within this song is based on him, it should be about him too. And note the separate alto and soprano verse is sung in the same way until it becomes unison again after the "... " part. I don't think you'd get it unless if you know the original and have heard the separate parts.))

"And all that Chazz!" (Unison wordpart)

-Verse 1-

Come on man, we're gonna get some cards
And all that Chazz!
I'm gonna pick the best out of all the rest
And all that Chazz!

Start the duel, I know a strategy
Where we beat them all and win instantly
It's just a simple game where we don't feel some shame
And all that Cha-ee-azz!

-Verse 2-

Hold out your deck and get your game on
And all that Chazz!
I hear that the champion will stir up some fun
And all that Chazz!

The game is tough, so play your cards right
We're not gonna stop until we win the card fight
And in case we lose, let's not get down with the blues
And do that Cha-ee-azz!

-Verse 3 (sung differently than the other two)-

Oh, you're gonna see all your opponents shake
Oh, you're gonna keep dueling 'til your plans break
Show him where to put the tra-aps
Oh, his teacher will just ya-ap
If he hears his student's weird
For all that Cha-ee-azz!

-Alto part-

Find a plan, we're gonna cut it loose

And all that Chazz!
All night long we're gonna beat the foo's (fools)
And all that Chazz!

Come on man, we're gonna duel the sky
I betcha Harpie Lady never flew so high
'Cause in the stratosphere how could she lend an ear to...

-Soprano part-
Oh, you're gonna see all your opponents shake
Oh, you're gonna keep dueling 'til your plans break
Show him where to put the tra-aps
Oh, his teacher will just ya-ap
If he hears his student's weird for...

-Unison again-
All that Cha-ee-azz!
And all that Cha-ee-azz!
(Whisper intensely) And all that Chazz!
