A more happy aspect on my life. Even though I've never broken anything - let alone been in a hospital for the last year!

Oh yeah - happy birthday Lucy! This is dedicated to yoo now!

1 - Doodles 1

Doodles

At school today I drew...

On my arms - my books - the tables

Did you know that at school I drew?

I drew me and you and love hearts.

I drew rainbows and clouds and the sun.

I drew my name on my fingers

I drew my face upon my hand

I drew my heart on my arm.

At home today I drew...

On my arms - my homework - my bed

Did you know that at home I drew?

I drew me and you and love hearts.

I drew rainbows and the shining sun.

I drew rain clouds forming around us.

So that we were alone as one

I drew my name upon the bed-spread

I drew my hand on my door

I drew my dreams along the floor.

At the hospital today I drew...

On my arms - my legs - my cast

Did you know that at hospital I drew?

I drew me and you and love hearts.

And the dawn of the shining sun.

I drew the young girl on the bed in front on me

So she could know what it was she had done.

I drew my name upon the table

I drew her name on the bed-spread

I drew our hearts together as one

So I knew you were with me...

Always.
