These thoughts

i am holding the pill bottle, gasping for breath thinking the end was in sight then the voice comes along, the one who tells me no, "you stupid dog put those up, do you wanna hurt him?"
and i cry harder...Him.... then i think he wouldn't care, he doesn't care.... i take one, then another...
WHY SHOULD HE CARE?!
then the voice....
"PUT THE frackING PILLS UP YOU WHORE!!! DO YOU WANT TO HURT HIM!?" and i can't take the guilt, i put them up stupid voice you happy now? now i have no end, only guilt and pain i want to end please just let it end i am so tired go away leave me to die
Him....
damn it, he is holding me here... he couldn't care could he?
i love him too much, i wish he'd just say he hated me just once... so then i could leave but he says he loves me, is it true? so afraid, so in pain... paranoid
alone, in the darkness of my own confines straight pins, safety pin all around me sharpness and opportunity.... here, now, crying
would he be mad at my thoughts?
if he knew would he scream at me for being a dog?
would he turn into the voice?
all because of these thoughts...

Porcelain Doll

reflection so pale, am i alive my suicide attempt, did i survive? you promised to always be at my side locked in a this cell, i now know you lied. my mind is my prison that i can't escape, you once came to me, but obviously too late.
it helped a little but then i relapsed i took to many pills and then i collapsed, trapped in my heart, hatred for life there was a time i wanted to be your wife, now dull memories of smiles long since past has prolonged my pain, made it last. i still want to cut, still want to die i remember you promised never to lie i should have known better, should have seen that in the end, you i could never believe. all promises are elaborate lies it shouldn't have come as a surprise and still i hoped even believed, that is why i was so easy to deceive... all men are liars, women are too, what have i done to all of you?
do i deserve this, must i go on?
am i the evil intolerable spawn? paler now that ever, remembering now promises of our ties never to sever i start to cry fall to the ground in the end pain's all i found why did you do this, why hurt me? what did i do? why can't i see?
i am so tired now, i fall asleep thinking of the promises you could keep... and to my delight i never wake up finally for once, i have good luck.... this is my future, i can already see how things are going to be for me should i end it now? should i die? rather than live through it and cry?

a porcelain doll, easy to shatter only 14 and already tattered... death is my salvation unless someone makes a happiness donation, someone please help i am so scarred of losing the one or two people who care...

HuRt

lust takes hold of everything and i just want to die, why did i do that, i think about it and cry... i just let fear take hold of me and twist up my mind so that i do as i am told, panic all i find. and if i were to die today i'd laugh as i was bleeding do you have any idea the images i've been seeing? how could i tell you i fear a repeat of history, even though i know you would never do that to me... that i have nightmares were it happens, but it's you instead of him, i wake up feeling scared, panicked to the brim.
and i know you'd never do that, but it won't go away.
and how could i tell you this? what words would i say? when i feel that at just the thought i have betrayed you and i have no idea what to do and i want to bleed dry and die so i can no longer cry or get by, and i want you to leave so i can't hurt you, but i need you desperately and i want this pain to fade away, i wan to be set free... of all the things that come from you, the good and the bad, i love to hear that you love me because it's the most i ever had.

and yes your hormones hurt me, like you promised me you wouldn't but i never hold it against you because i know i shouldn't it's not your fault i feel this way, not your fault I'm wounded not your fault that through everything no hate was bred, well against the man who did it but hatred against me and one day i will die, then everyone will see, and everything is not okay i try to hide anyway and to tell the truth about how i feel, this is what i wanted to say for a while now while i was hid i thought these words out and it built up so long i wanted to scream and shout, so you would know how i feel, but then i was scared you'd leave and then i would lose everything i choose to believe. i love you so much, sorry for this betrayal, so sorry for my thoughts i am so sorry, my love, but pain i am wrought.. and i love you so much to hide if you would like but then it would build and fester, and likely to one day strike.
and all I want is for this to go away so i can be happy, so rest assured baby, i know you'd never do that to me i am sorry my past affects me so much to affect you, i don't know what to do i am so confused, please don't leave me, that would hurt me worse, and remember baby, you promised not to make me hurt!

Saturated loneliness

why is it that i still hurt? every thing's just getting worse, i wish there was something, anything, more than this
saturated loneliness... it's not until i stop and think i realize I'm all alone after my love and i are off the phone, i know i have no one to cry to, besides my love who is you... and i feel i must hide not let you see the pain inside, i wish i were someone i want to be anyone
as long as you love me, as long as we can be..
i wanna be something, i wish it was something better than all of this..
saturated loneliness...
why is it i still cry?
i just want to die through all of this i wish there is something better, i have to believe there is, i feel life unfair, why do i have to deal with it?
it's not fair to anyone, i don't want to deal with this shoot.. i am going through a rough time, scarred by a bad crime against me...
do you see...
i want to see the better side of things, i try to but it stings, all i want is one more kiss, through all of my saturated loneliness....

I know there is something, there's got to be something better... why do i have to get through all of this?
wading through my saturated loneliness....

Forsaken memories

i sit here scaring you
i hate this,
and every thing we do,
grown so cold,
you bring back the heat
but my past
cannot be beat,
i slit my wrist,
i want to die,
one last breath
one more time.
Holding on i try so hard
left me scarred...
don't let go,
though i plead
hold tight
don't let me bleed
if i cry
don't turn from me i can't breath, my throat's so tight, why can't i forget these memories i can't get through this it hurts too much i try and i bleed
but my heart gets crushed.

why can't i see the light you say resides within me everyday i try too hard to fake my smile
but i still bleed once in a while these memories crush my life i can't let it out i refuse
i won't shout,
and i won't die
i'll hold on i promise
i won't leave you
why should i?
i try to live
but i won't cry these memories are holding tight but i'll beat this one day i know i'll let my pain show, but by it might be too late, too late to save my soul this memory won't fade with time they won't go away i try to force them out but here they stay until i cut them away..

away..

damn these forsaken memories keep away from me let me heal my wounds today, don't let it stay with me set me free...
rape is such a horrid crime, i fear it won't fade with time.....

Your last lullaby

Hush little baby don't say a word mommie knows her baby's hurt she can see it in your eyes you can't hide behind your lies ring around the rosies, devil got your nosie drag you down into hell no one hears you when you yell twinkle twinkle little star treat you like the whore you are hate you though your my kin you actions seep through my skin this is how i know you feel and you know it's myself i kill because you hate the way i am i'm intoxicated with the venom Save me mommie, please please try or this will be your last lullaby sung by the spawn i know you hate save me or this will be your fate lalalalalala...

kill me now or watch me bleed how could you do this evil deed? singing softly this lullaby dosen't make you want to cry?

mommie pretends that you don't hurt...

Daddy, say it isn't so!! i have memories of things, things mom says aren't real please tell me i'm a liar, so, with my memories, i can deal tell me it was all a dream say what happened isn't so but you were so drunk it seems you can't remember what we both know... please daddy say i had a nightmare say it's all in my head sick of all the sad thoughts you might just find me dead say i couldn't be right for once tell me i am dumb or let me try to forget let my heart go numb, no longer do i want to weep all i want is to die and night is worst of all because i have the time to wonder why save me from this guilt i feel i know it's all my fault convince me i'm a liar say it's not what i thought tell me that you love me that you don't have to go but most of all daddy... please say it isn't so!!

2 - Heres to guys, and their perversions, fuck you.

His hands traveling down my bady, fast, too fast, blurred why?
i want to cry,
no tears come our breathing becomes hard, strained his hard manhood pressed against me scaring me
hurting me....
Why?
i want to scream,
but no words come his hands unzip my pants i gasp in terror
as he pulls them down my legs
"NO!"
my voice strained as i struggle for freedom
but he doesn't let go my body
limp in his arms as he thrusts himself upon me my vision, now blurred with tears. no more...
but i can't i love him but why does he do this the thing i hate?
the thing
my mind
just can not take?
it's not fair...
never fair....

3 - Why do you hate me?

Your cold eyes follow me, i feel them
though i cannot see you I feel the hot fear crawling up my spine
and i know
i may not make it out alive....

You voice,
so calm
not a shimmer of remorse So steady,
you're ready to suck the life from my very soul....

My bleak eyes stare back tears
flowing down these cold cheeks i gasp for breath the air so heavy
the blood so thick
i know i am dieing
and all i hear
is your cruel laugh teasing....

Why Do You Hate Me?

4 - Please don't go

So many times
i've cried for you
the tears,
bleed through my love the suffering
taint my trust
adn i know i still love you i cry at the thought of losing you
i wail at the thought of seeing you
the fear so creeping i can't help but scream
you don't care
i know you don't see the me inside
but i can't help but love you your kiss
you touch holding hands
though i know the thoughts that run through you head the thoughts of hurting me I love you but how much more can i take?
i'll do anything to hold onto you
just please
don't go
i need to know i'm loved i need you by my side but it hurts so much,
how much longer can i survive
this pain...
I know i'll do anything let you hurt me

sob to you

let you know i'm hurt hide that i'm hurt

andthing you ask of me i'll do

Just

Please

Don't

5 - i....

This is what has happened so long, so much pain i feel as though i've slept, only to wake insane these nightmares how the haunt me from night to bloody night these cuts shall never fade, their scars a holy white... and with me is the blade that i shall never let go it'll help me keep the pain away make sure it doesn't show, help you sharp thing you, you know you hear my pleas do you want me to beg?
to fall upon my knees?
to cry out in abandon to let go of all that i hold dear?
and show you that i mean it when i say i have no fear, do you want to see him hurt me for me to take it like a man no tears shall fall upon my cheeks then will you understand? please save me from this thing that hurts take me far away i don't care if i die just don't make me stay....
