0 - The Dancing Dream of Life

The cold, dark eyes close into emptiness,
Eyes like stone,
Far from what is ordinary and true.
Her eyes scream with the one she loves and lost,
With stinging sensation.

Tears drop into pools of flowers,
Hanging on threads of life,
Flowers dancing in the moon light,
Holding onto life.

Drip,
drip,
drip,
Drop.

As her eyes dance to the rhythm of love,
With her insides screaming, "HOW? NOW? WHY? WHY NOW!?"
Each step she took she could feel steps in her,
Flying across the floor with the one she loved,
With the swishing of her golden dress on the floor as she glides across holding the hand she loved.

Her eyes glaze back like the sea after a storm,
Holding onto life itself,
Crying out with her pain of her lost love,
Her tears dancing into little pools once more,
Gripping onto life as she knows it to be.

Opening her eyes to reality with crystal blue eyes,
She only smiles and glides out of bed,
Only to be happy that this is her life, her reality, her love, her work, and her way of her dream to come.
