Chapter 1 - Kyo's fault

1 - Kyo's fault

A new student arrived at Tohru's middle school that day. His name was Jon Draco (I have no idea) and half way through that day, He came over to Tohru before class. Kyo and Yuki were in different classes at the time so Tohru was by herself. When he approached her, she looked up and smiled kindly. "Aren't you the new student that was coming in today?" she asked politely. The way she smiled up to him... she seemed to be nice and gentle. Jon was in immediate love and needed to ask her on a date. But how? "Umm... yea, I am." Then the idea struck him. "I was wondering, I noticed that you were having trouble in science today." She sighed. "Yeah I'm not doing too well in that subject." He smiled down to her. "Well, I think I could help you with our science homework for tonight ... so maybe we could... meet up at that nice cafe downtown later and work on it together. What do you say?" Tohru did need a bit of help with homework. But Kyo and Yuki always helped her out with that. And what would they say if she went out to dinner with another guy? "Well, I guess I need all the help I can get so... see you there... at 6:00?" "Sounds good!" he said, overjoyed that he got a date. Seconds later, the bell rang and they walked with each other out of the room. But when outside, Tohru noticed a grumpy looking Kyo up against the wall. "Finally," he said, then glanced over towards the other guy. "Who's that guy?" he asked. Tohru didn't know how to answer so she just turned to Jon. "Uh... see you later." she said then rushed off with Kyo in her grip.

Later in the day, Tohru and Kyo and Yuki all walked home together. Yuki spoke first about Shigure not being home for the next few days, then realised how mad Kyo looked. "What's bugging you, cat?" He said, "Not that I would care." Kyo glared at Yuki. "Well, why don't you ask Tohru." He looked over to her; Yuki looked over to her too but more confused. "It's nothing. Just a guy." Now Kyo glared at her instead. "You don't like him, right?" Tohru responded quickly. "Of course not! I'm just... well... it isn't really a date-" At this point Kyo stopped completely. "A DATE!? You better not be going!" He did like Tohru a lot and didn't want her dating other guys she met just that day. Now he came to the point where he cracked. "Tell me you're not going!" He yelled, grabbing her wrist tightly. "Uh... Why can't I go? It's just help with homework-" "You have us for that reason and many others!" he yelled again, tightening his grip. "Kyo-kun, stop that." Yuki now spoke up sternly. But Kyo's grip tightened even more. "All you need to say is you aren't going with him. Just say it!" Then his grip finally sunk into Tohru's skin and Tohru's scream filled the air above them. Yuki's eyes widened and he grabbed Kyo's wrist at a pressure point so he would let go finally. Tohru was now whimpering upon the ground, wrist dropping blood quickly and badly. "Tohru! Are you okay." Yuki knelt down beside her but she pushed him away and ran off. "DAMMIT CAT!" Yuki immediately punched Kyo in the jaw and he flew at a tree. "Tohru's bleeding badly and it's all your fault! You idiot." Yuki ran off to find her leaving Kyo against the tree where he began thinking about what he had done.
