In the heart of Egypt's ever-changing real estate landscape, a name rises with unwavering strength, Samco Holding. Over nearly 3 decades, it has become a story of transformation, ambition, and excellence. Under the expert guidance of Engineer Sameh Suleiman and Engineer Ibrahim Zayed, Samco Holding has not only weathered market shifts but mastered them. With deep industry knowledge and forward-thinking leadership, they've crafted a brand that echoes trust, quality, and resilience through all its Samco Holding projects and, of course, prices that offer unbeatable value. Crafting Egypt's Tomorrow with Confidence

Every city has its heartbeat, and for Egypt, Samco Holding projects are part of that pulse. The company's story includes more than 70 dynamic projects, reflecting both its depth and agility in the construction and development world.

Among these, Samco Holding projects span diverse collaborations—from over 20 major initiatives with the Armed Forces Engineering Authority to more than 50 standout achievements in the private sector. Each project bears the hallmark of innovation, planning, and commitment to Egypt's long-term vision.

Samco Projects: Laying the Foundations of Progress

Each of Samco Developments projects is more than a set of buildings; it's a vision realized. With investments aligning with Egypt's grand urban renaissance, the company is playing a pivotal role in reshaping how cities grow and thrive.

From bustling metropolitan zones to quiet, serene compounds, Samco Holding projects are curated with attention to lifestyle, modern design, and environmental responsibility. With a track record so strong, it's no surprise that investors continue to place their confidence in Samco Holding's unwavering commitment to excellence.

Smart Investments, Attractive Opportunities

A new chapter unfolds as Samco Holding prepares to unveil a stunning array of projects worth over 15 billion EGP. These projects open the doors for investors and homebuyers to buy elite spaces at incredibly competitive prices, redefining affordability in luxury living.

The company's innovative marketing strategies and tailored sales plans are engineered to captivate today's savvy investor. Whether it's an elegant home or a commercial venture, Samco Holding's vision ensures high returns and a forward-facing real estate experience.

Samco Developments Goes Green

Samco Holding projects aren't just brick and mortar; they are green, conscious, and future-ready. Sustainability is the golden thread running through each structure, from design to execution, with eco-friendly materials and energy-saving technologies at their core.

With Samco Developments integrating solar energy systems and smart resource management into its communities, residents enjoy beauty and efficiency. This powerful blend positions Samco Holding at the forefront of sustainable construction, changing how Egyptians live and how developers build.

Reimagining Communities with Purpose

Beyond the walls and rooftops, Samco Holding creates neighborhoods where life thrives. Spaces like Rivali Compound New Cairo don't just house people; they invite them to live better. Green areas, walkable streets, and communal parks all come together in harmony. From encouraging cycling to creating wellness-focused zones, Samco Holding is setting a new benchmark for urban living in Egypt. It's about lifestyle, not just location. With every tree planted and every path paved, Samco Holding shows that luxury and sustainability can go hand in hand.

Mall The Five: A Bold Commercial Icon Rises

The iconic Mall The Five New Capital rises proudly in Egypt's New Capital, and exceptional project in Samco Holding's impressive portfolio. Sprawling across 5 acres, this commercial marvel is designed to captivate with its modern aesthetics and strategic location. The mall offers commercial, administrative, medical and hotel units from just 30 m². To book units, you can start with a 10% down payment and up to 12 years of installments.

Rivali Compound: Stylish, Sustainable, and Surprisingly Affordable

Nestled near Mohamed Naguib Axis, Rivali Compound New Cairo is a shining example of Samco Developments' architectural brilliance. With units starting from 129 m², it caters to individuals and families seeking stylish, functional, and eco-smart homes. The most enticing element is the attractive prices, with apartments for sale starting from 3,117,000 EGP, a testament to Samco Holding's ability to offer premium spaces at remarkable value.

Conclusion: A Legacy Built for Generations

In a world where real estate evolves by the day, Samco Holding remains a steady beacon of innovation, trust, and excellence. Its commitment to sustainable luxury, community well-being, and cutting-edge development sets them apart. As Samco projects continue to rise across Egypt's skyline, they're more than buildings; they're promises kept.
