A poem about Alice and Wonderland....but a darker side of Alice....kinda like American Mcgee's Alice

1 - Alice's Wonder Land

Alice's Wonder Land by Kristin Townsend

O tell me of Alice's place

Where the Queen without a heart lives

Where the jabberwocky is afoot

And the Cheshire demon haunts his prey

O tell me of Alice

The foolish girl

Who has not an ounce of sanity

And dreams of her own world of macabre danger

O tell me of the Cheshire Cat

The demon that lurks in the dark

With a repulsive smirk stretching from cheek to cheek

And a rabid bite of stupidity

O tell me of the mad hatter

The secretive handsome mysterious figure

Enigmatic man

Whose oblivion is torture

O tell me of the white rabbit

Who spends his time

Worrying about time

An animal that's lost its mind

O tell me of the Queen of Hearts

The woman whose heart has been ripped out

And replaced with

A monstrous beast

O tell me of this Wonderland

A true wonder land

God's blunder

The gruesome plague that possesses Alice

Her own nightmare

And a jolly oblivious adventure

Of silence and mortality.
