1 - The Ninth Digidestine, Amika Aurora

Episode One

The Ninth Digidestine, Amika Aurora

Izzy silently sat at his laptop with a serious look on his face. As the screen on his laptop came into view, we see that he's running some sort of test on it. It didn't look like a normal computer test either. It looked more like some sort of tracking program. Radar and a map was all that was part of this test. The thing was, what exactly was Izzy looking for? Maybe a better question would be, who was he looking for?

As Izzy continued to look at the screen, a little red dot started to blink on the radar. Izzy's eyes suddenly got big as he looked at the blinking dot. It had just appeared and it was already at his front door. He quickly stumbled to his feet and headed out of his bedroom. Whatever was creating that little dot had to be important.

When Izzy opened the front door, he spotted Tai and Agumon standing there with slightly worried look on their faces. Izzy was confused though. Tai and Agumon shouldn't have been making the radar go off. Just as he was about to ask if there was anyone else with them, Tai and Agumon walked in revealing Wizardmon behind them. Wizardmon was holding a tag with an aqua green Crest slipped into it in one hand and a Digivice in the other. Izzy quickly noticed that the Crest had an Egyptian Eye as a design on it. He then quickly realized that these two items were what made his radar go off. There was only one problem; there was a Digimon but no Digidestine. That was actually more of a big problem.

Wait a sec, Izzy quickly said as he turned and looked at Tai, what are you doing bringing an enemy Digimon here along with a Digidestineless Crest and Digivice? I mean, Gennai sent me a program so I could find two more Digidestine, but I wasn't suspecting this. Wizardmon looked sad as he gripped hard onto the tag and Digivice. He's worried green eyes then looked over into Tai's direction. Tai just let out a sigh and placed his arm around Izzy's small shoulders. Izzy didn't look pleased.

First of all, Tai said trying to sound less upset than he really looked, Wizardmon is no longer an enemy. In fact, I don't think he ever was. Also, that's why we're here. I think I know one of the Digidestine, but where she is is something I don't know. I lost contact with her three years ago. Izzy's disgusted look turned interested. He then took Tai's arm off of his shoulders and hinted toward his bedroom. Tai slightly smiled and looked back at Wizardmon. With a slight nod of his head toward Izzy's bedroom, Wizardmon and Agumon nodded back. Everyone then started toward the room.

Once in Izzy's room, everyone gathered around his laptop. Izzy then took a quick look back at Tentamon who was quietly sleeping on his bed and didn't notice anything that was going on. With a slight smile, Izzy looked back and started typing something into his laptop. Tai looked from the screen to Wizardmon. Wizardmon was looking on intently. He looked like he wanted to find his partner as much as they did.

Ok, Izzy said as he continued to type, let's get our facts straight first. Kairi turned out to be the Eighth Digidestine, but Myotismon is still looking for someone different. That's when Gennai sent me the radar and told me of two other Digidestine that were recently revealed. The question now is, why would this girl you know be one of these two new Digidestine that have been discovered? Tai slightly blushed and looked at the floor. He then cleared his throat as looked back up at Izzy.

Well&., Tai said as he grabbed his chin and started looking at the ceiling.

~FLASHBACK~

Leave me alone you Butt-Monkey, a six year old girl with shoulder-length wavy dirty blonde hair said to a boy who was punching his hand in her face, I haven't done anything to you! The boy just grinned as he walked closer to the blonde girl.

Fat chance Amika, the boy said as he moved closer again, I've wanted to pound your smartass into the ground forever. Amika, the blonde girl, took a step backward, but stood her ground. She wasn't about to let this boy get away with beating her.

Bring it you Hick, Amika said as she dropped her little backpack and held her fist up. The boy's grin turned to a frown and his eyes flashed with anger. He quickly lunged at Amika with his hands balled into fists. Amika just closed her eyes and waited to get hit when the boy stopped in his tracks. When she didn't get hit, Amika slowly opened one eye. She then gasped as she looked at the boy's stomach. A seven year old Tai had come out of nowhere and punched the boy in the gut.

Why don't you crawl away before I decide to place my sneaker in your face, Tai said as the boy fell to his knees holding his stomach. The boy then nodded and started to crawl away from the kids. A bright smile crossed Amika's face as the boy continued to crawl down the hall. She then quickly ran in front of Tai and stuck out her hand. Tai was a little shocked with her reaction and slowly shook her hand as he started to blush.

Thank you Tai, Amika said as her hair slightly fell in her face, I'm going to owe you one. Tai continued to blush as Amika dropped his hand. He swallowed a little on the hard side and slowly nodded his head. Amika giggled and shook her head. She then turned and started to walk away from Tai when he grabbed her arm. She slightly turned her head and her right sky blue eye caught the glimmer in Tai's eyes as he held onto her sleeve. She started to wonder what was going through Tai's mind.

I was wondering if you could stay for dinner Amika, Tai asked as he slowly let go of Amika's sleeve, I mean, you could call your parents from my place and we could do some soccer practice afterward. Amika smiled and turned completely toward Tai. For the first time, we catch a glimpse of her left eye. This wouldn't be such a big deal, but this eye is a different color from the right one. Instead of being sky blue, this eye was lime green. Amika truly was a unique girl in more than one way.

I would be happy to Tai, Amika said as she took a step closer to Tai and grabbed one of his hands, Dinner at your place sounds lovely. Tai started to blush one last time. He then smiled nervously and started to lead Amika toward his apartment.

Later that night, Amika was sitting on the stairs of the apartments. She had a dreamy look on her face as she stared at a blank page in a sketchbook. She played with a yellow pencil that lay by her side. She couldn't concentrate on what she really wanted to while something else was on her mind. As a soft sigh escaped her lips, something huge had landed on a nearby car. Dust flew up high and Amika covered her eyes with her arm. She couldn't see anything, but wondered what had just happened. Nothing in this world was big enough to cause such a ruckus unless it was a Wrecking Ball. That was definitely no Wrecking Ball though.

Just as the dust cleared and Amika moved her arm, her eyes widened. The car that was the unlucky victim of this thing was crushed and a large Agumon was standing near a Vending Machine. Tai's little sister, Kari, was trying to get a soda out of the machine for the Agumon, but it looked more eager to go than anything else. Just as Kari grabbed the soda and climbed onto the Agumon back, Tai came running down across the upstairs balcony. Amika quickly looked up. As she spotted Tai, she sprang to her feet. Her sketchbook fell hard onto the ground making a light thud sound. She started to worry about what was going on.

Amika, Tai yelled as he started to make his way down the stairs, did you see where that umm&..Agumon went? Amika slowly nodded her head and pointed toward the city. Tai looked toward where she was pointing and started to look scared. As he reached the step Amika was on, he grabbed both of her hands. As she looked into his eyes, she could tell that he was worried. His deep brown eyes flickered and tears were starting to form in them. Please help me. I need to find Kari. I don't know what Agumon will do to her. Amika took a deep breath and slowly let it out as Tai continued to intently look at her. She then slowly nodded her head.

Alright, Amika said with a little bit of fear in her voice, I'll help you. You are my only friend after all. Tai slightly smiled, but still looked sad. He had known Amika for a long time and tried to make friends for her. The only thing was, no one liked her. She was too strange for them. She was an outcast. She was always different from everyone. She was a Soccer Player, an Artist, and even a Bully sometimes. She just didn't seem to fit in with anyone. Tai figured that was the reason she felt compelled to help. He was truly her only friend and she would do anything for him.

Ok, Tai said as he dropped one of Amika's hands, let's go then. Amika quickly nodded and started to follow Tai as he led her rest of the way down the stairs. A slight smile actually crossed her face this time as Tai and her started toward the city.

~END OF FLASHBACK~

So that's why I think Amika might be who we're looking for, Tai said as he looked at Izzy's slightly disgusted face, I had led her right into the middle of that battle at Hightonview Terrace. I even gave her my goggles I was wearing that night. Izzy almost looked like he was going to laugh now. Tai quickly gave him a mean look as he turned back toward his laptop. He knew what was going through Izzy's mind and he didn't like it.

That sounded more like a bad Romance Novel than anything else, Izzy said with laughter in his voice, but I'll look this girl up anyways. All I need is her last name. Agumon quickly snickered at Izzy's comment until Tai shot him a mean look. He quickly placed one of his hands over his mouth to try to stop from laughing, but it wasn't working. He was still covering up small little laughs. Tai just rolled his eyes and let out a sigh. Agumon was impossible and not worth his effort. He then slowly looked back at Izzy.

Aurora, Tai said as Izzy didn't even bother to look back at him, That's Amika's last name, Aurora. Izzy quickly nodded his head and started to type something into his laptop. Tai watched intently, when something popped up on the screen. It looked like a small list that only consisted of four names, Simon Aurora, April Aurora, Zak Aurora, and Amika Aurora. A sudden smile crossed both Tai's and Izzy's faces. They had found their girl. Now they had to go to her address and give her the Crest and Digivice test.

According to this, Izzy said as he leaned a little closer to the screen, Amika still lives in Hightonview Terrace. Her apartment number is 418. Another smile crossed Tai's face as he quickly stood up. Everyone looked at him as he gripped one of his fist in a slightly heroic stance.

Let's go, Tai said as he looked down at Izzy, Let's give Amika the test. Izzy let out a sigh and stood up. He then closed his laptop and picked it up.

Within a few minutes, Tai, Agumon, Izzy, Tentomon, and Wizardmon arrived at Hightonview Terrace and made their way to the fourth floor. As they stepped off the last step and into the fourth floor hallway, a soccer ball rolled at them at a slightly high speed. Tai quickly reacted the only way he could think of, stopping the ball with his foot. He then bent over to pick it up.

Excuse me, a female voice said just as Tai stood back up, could you give me my ball back. I need to brush up on some skills. Tai's eyes slightly widened as he looked in the direction of the voice. It was Amika. Nothing about her had changed except her wardrobe. She was now wearing a black bellyshirt with a white skull in the middle of it and long flared out see-through sleeves, a black skirt with three half zipped zippers evened out on the front of it, black leggings that ended at her knees, black and white sneakers, black fingerless gloves, a black choker with a skull pendant in the middle of it, and a black headband with the goggles that Tai had given her that night rested on top of it. She looked kind of like a Goth if you wanted to be simplistic about it.

Amika, Tai said as he almost dropped her soccer ball, I can't believe it's you. Actually, I can't believe you kept my goggles all this time. The stern look that was on Amika's face suddenly turned to a smile. She ran up to Tai and hugged him around the neck. A sweat drop appeared on the back of Izzy's head as Tai started to blush. Agumon started to laugh and Wizardmon let out a sigh. Then, with no warning, the Crest and Digivice started to glow in a beautiful aqua green light. They were reacting to Amika. She was actually the Ninth Digidestine. She was the one they were looking for.

Hey, Amika said as she looked over Tai's shoulder down at Agumon, you're a little version of Agumon. I hope you're not here to cause more trouble. Agumon got a startled look on his face and started shaking his head. Izzy looked a little startled as well. He was startled over the fact that Amika wasn't scared of the Digimon and that she still remembered that night. Everyone else, except Kari, didn't remember the bombing at first and we were scared of their Digimon. Amika acted like this was a normal thing.

Excuse me Ms. Amika, Wizardmon said as he floated over to the side of her and Tai, I would like to introduce myself. I'm Wizardmon and I think I'm your partner Digimon. Here, please take your Crest of Truth and Digivice. Amika looked down at Wizardmon's outstretched hands. She then let go of Tai and bent down. With a smile, she took her items.

Thank you Wizardmon, Amika said as she slipped her Tag and Crest around her neck, You're already the best partner ever. Wizardmon was the one to blush this time. Amika seemed to know how to embarrass someone. It must have been one of her many talents.

Yes thank you Wizardmon, a female voice said from behind the group, You lead me straight to the Ninth Digi-Brat. Meow! The small group looked behind them toward the end of the hall as Amika stood up. Standing on the railing there was a Persiamon with her hand on her hip and both of her black tails were wagging. Tentomon, Agumon, and Wizardmon all looked prepared to battle as they stared hard at Persiamon.

Who are you and what do you want with Amika, Tai questioned as Amika walked behind him. Persiamon slightly grinned and both of her shiny white fangs showed. She then jumped off the railing and disappeared in a flash. As everyone looked around, she reappeared behind Amika and grabbed her.

Ohhh&., Persiamon said as she licked Amika on the cheek, you taste absolutely divine. No wonder master Myotimon wants you. Amika started to struggle, but the more she wiggled, the more Persiamon tightened up on her. Tai and Izzy went to grab their Digivices when Wizardmon stopped them. They both looked at him with questioning looks, but then it struck them. Wizardmon was Amika's partner and he had to protect her. He had to prove himself.

Why don't you mess with me&., Wizardmon said as he pointed his staff at Persiamon, THUNDER BLASTER! A flash of yellow lightning quickly came out of Wizardmon's staff and shocked Persiamon's hands. With a yelp of pain, Persiamon dropped Amika. Tai met Amika halfway as she stumbled to her feet and ran into his open arms. She looked scared now as Tai hugged her, but she wasn't about to give up. She would do what she had to to help Wizardmon win.

You nasty little Bugger, Persiamon yelled as she stopped licking her injured paws, You'll pay for that! VAMPIRE DANCE! Bats started to form around Persiamon as she danced around in a circle. Once she stopped and grinned, the bats flew after Wizardmon. Wizardmon could only throw his cape up as a protection because the bats were moving at too high of a speed. He would have never dodged in time.

The bats hit their mark and exploded. Wizardmon flew backward and hit the floor with a loud thud. He slid right to Amika's and Tai's feet and his hat was still lying where he had originally been standing. A tear started to creep down Amika's cheek as she looked into Wizardmon's pained green eyes. Just as she turned and buried her head in Tai's chest, her Crest and Digivice started to glow. The aqua green glow then moved to Wizardmon. Wizardmon was, with no doubt, Amika's partner because he was Digivolving with her help. Persiamon now looked scared. Her opponent was now getting stronger.

Wizardmon Digivolve to&., Wizardmon started as he started to grow taller as he stood up, Myotimon! Tai, Izzy, Tentomon, and Agumon all looked shocked. One of their new allies was the same type of Digimon as their greatest enemy. There were a few differences between this Myotimon and the enemy one though. Our Myotimon has green eyes instead of blue, his lips are the same color as his skin, and his hair is a lighter blonde. He actually looked like a good version to a point.

Now that's not fair, Persiamon said as she looked at Myotismon, Master Myotismon wouldn't like this. You stole his identity. Myotismon's green eyes narrowed. He then made a red whip in his hand. Persiamon jumped as he suddenly snapped it a few times by her feet.

I'll never be like your master, Myotismon said as Persiamon started to back away, and he'll be joining you back in the Digital World soon enough. Persiamon didn't like where this conversation was going, but she wasn't leaving without a bang. With a grin, she used another Vampire Dance. Myotismon quickly threw his wop into the air. CRIMSON LIGHTNING.

The Crimson Lightning came down on Persiamon with a snap. Persiamon disappeared with a laugh and grin as her Vampire Dance hit Myotismon right in the chest and exploded. Amika pushed her way out of Tai's arms and up to Myotismon as he fell backward and started to De-Digivolve. She did a sliding stop on her knees and caught DemiDevimon as he fell. That fight and Digivolving into an Ultimate for the first time must have taken a lot out of him for him to De-Digivolve back into his Rookie form.

Thank you again ummm&., Amika said knowing that Wizardmon was no longer Wizardmon and had a new name. DemiDevimon slightly smiled as his yellow eyes sparkled.

It's DemiDevimon, DemiDevimon said as he closed his eyes, and I'm going to go to sleep now. Amika nodded and stood up. She understood how much that must have taken out of her new partner. As she turned around, Tai, Agumon, Izzy, and Tentomon were standing near her. She quickly smiled at all four of them.

With all of the action, Tai started with a smile, we weren't all introduced correctly. Amika quickly shook her head and pointed at Agumon. Agumon started to sweat. He thought he was going to get yelled at again by her.

No need, Amika said as she cradled DemiDevimon in one arm, I know who everyone is. There's Agumon, you're Izzy Izumi, and that's your partner Tentomon. I've heard so much already from Kari. Tai slightly nodded and looked over at Izzy. Izzy just shrugged his shoulders. Tai let out a sigh and smiled as he looked back at Amika.

Well, Tai said as Amika looked at him, welcome to the team. Amika smiled brightly and walked up to Tai. She then gave him a quick kiss on the cheek.

Glad to be a part of it, Amika said as Tai turned bright red. Izzy, Agumon, and Tentomon started to laugh as Tai touched his cheek where Amika just kissed him. In fact, even Amika started to giggle as the scene started to fade out.

2 - American Digidestine, Kailee, in Need

Episode Two

American Digidestine, Kailee, in Need

Amika was sitting in her Living Room hugging DemiDevimon as he sat in her lap. She was intently watching the News with a worried look. We can see that the News is showing monster attacks all over the world. There was a WaruSeadramon in Britain, a Vikararamon in France, a Triceramon in China, and a Parrotmon some where in North America. Amika looked scared and ready to fight all at the same time. She was new to all of this, but that was far from enough to stop her. Even the fact that evil Digimon were after her didn't frighten her. She was going to stand and fight with her fellow Digidestine.

Hey, a young male voice said from nearby, what are you watching, a monster film? Amika jumped a little and looked toward the voice. To her relief it was only her little brother, Zak. Zak was two years younger than his sister, making him about eight. He had short, sloppily spiked dirty blonde hair and dark blue eyes. He wore a white jersey with a thick dark blue line trimming the sleeves and bottom along with the same color number eight filling the blank areas in the front of back of it that was a little too big for him, dark blue cargo shorts also a little too big, and dark blue and white sneakers. He had a questioning look across his face as Amika searched for an answer.

Yes, Amika said as DemiDevimon quickly played stuffed, that's exactly what it is. Zak rolled his eyes and placed his hands on the back of his head. He then walked into the kitchen and hopped up on a stool.

Oh, Zak started with a yawn, I forgot to tell you that Tai was at the door. I wonder if he's still there. Amika's eyes narrowed and flashed with anger. She then quickly got up and ran to the door. She snugly held DemiDevimon with one arm as she slowly opened the door with her newly freed hand. A sweat drop soon appeared on the back of her head and she gripped her fist. Zak started to laugh, but Amika ignored him. She knew Zak wouldn't lie about someone being there, but he would make them wait forever before he told someone that they were there. Tai had probably left by that time, but Amika was going to take a look. She slowly leaned her head out the door and looked. Just before she turned to look to her left, someone pulled her out of her apartment. She quickly turned bright red when she saw that it was Tai that had grabbed her. She then shook her head. Tai was her best friend and that was all.

God Tai, Amika said as she noticed Tai holding Agumon's hand, DemiDevimon could have gone Wizardmon on you and kicked your butt. You don't do that to people with a Digimon. Tai shook his head and reached over to close Amika's apartment door. Amika could tell Tai met business. He wasn't here on a friendly visit.

The Digimon attacks are getting worse, Tai said as DemiDevimon flew from Amika's arm and onto her shoulder, They're all over the place and we can't do anything about them. We need to stop Myotismon and fast. Amika shook her head and put her head down. As she stared at her feet, something struck her. She quickly grabbed Tai's hand and led him inside her apartment. She led him all the way into Zak's and her room where a computer was. Tai looked a little confused.

I just remembered something, Amika said as she sat down in the nearby computer chair, I have a friend in New York that's a Digidestine. She's originally from Tokyo like the rest of us, which explains a lot. She even has a Digimon and a Crest. The only thing is, she doesn't know what to do and Gennai told her she wasn't needed yet. It's strange. It's like something's going to go wrong and we're all going to be called back to the Digital World to defend it again. Anyways, I hate to burst Kailee's bubble, but&. Tai looked more confused now. How could there be an extra Digidestine that's from America and isn't needed? His head started to hurt. Listening to Amika was almost like listening to Izzy. It was just downright confusing.

So, Tai said as he leaned on the chair that Amika was sitting in, what are you going to do? If she's not needed, what can she really do? Amika let out a sigh as DemiDevimon flew onto her computer. She then started typing something in when a screen popped up her screen. A young girl about her age was panicky looking on the other side of the window. Her scared light blue eyes matched the purple ones on her BlackGatomon's. Her shoulder length black hair was slightly messed up and her chin length bangs were stuck to the side of her face which was red and had freckles on it. Her sleeveless hoodie was black and purple with a black paw mark on the back of it and left side, her pants were half black and half purple on the bottom, her sneakers were also purple and black, her headband was purple with a black paw print in the middle of it, and her wristbands were purple with black paw prints on them. Amika quickly looked just as scared as this girl.

Kailee, Amika said with a slightly shaky voice, what's wrong? What's going on? The girl, who was obviously Kailee, shook her head and looked behind her. A huge picture window was behind her and blasts could be heard and seen. Something was attacking the city.

I'm not quite sure, Kailee said as BlackGatomon ran to the window, I think some kind of evil Digimon is attacking the city or something. You've got to help me Amika. I don't know what to do! Amika shook her head and looked over at Tai. Tai had a serious look on his face and both of his hands were balled into fists. Amika knew Tai was upset and wanted to help, but there was nothing either one of them could do. They were in Japan and Kailee was in America.

Kailee, Amika said as she looked back at her monitor, we're sorry. There's nothing we can do. We're too far away. Kailee went to say something when another blast went off. She quickly covered her head and BlackGatomon slightly backed away from the window. Amika quickly stood up and slammed her hands down on her desk. It was killing her that her friend didn't know what to do and she couldn't help. As anger built in Amika's eyes, both hers and Tai's Digivices started to glow and whine. Then, in a bright flash of light, they were gone.

Amika, Zak said as he started to open the bedroom door, what the heck&.. A surprised look crossed Zak's face as he stared at the empty room. He started to wonder what happened. He didn't hear Amika and Tai leave. In fact, he didn't see them. Where could they've had gone and how did they get there.

On the other side of the computer, Kailee was shielding her eyes from the same bright light. She then slightly moved her arm to see Amika, Tai, DemiDevimon, and Agumon lying on her floor. She looked a little surprised as Amika sat up and looked around in shock. Tai was still rubbing his head as he looked over at Agumon. They all started to wonder what happened.

Oh my God, Kailee said with slight excitement, I don't know what happened, but you're here to help me. I don't have to worry any more. Amika blinked a few times as Kailee hugged her. She then looked over at Tai as he sat up. They must have traveled through the computer with the help of their Digivices.

Gennai must have done this, Amika said as she suddenly stood up almost knocking Kailee down, He must have wanted us to help you. Kailee looked at Amika with a questioning look. She then looked toward her monitor as it went dark and turned back on with Gennai in the middle of the screen.

That s right Amika, Gennai said as the screen started to waver back and forth, Kailee hasn t been through the things you regular Digidestine have. You have to help her before I can return you back to Tokyo. Amika let out a sigh just as Tai placed his hand on her shoulder. She slightly turned to look at him when Kailee cleared her throat.

Sorry to break you two lovebirds up, Kailee said as BlackGatomon ran up to her, but we need help, like now. Tai and Amika turned bright red and quickly turned toward the big picture window. They could really see the damage done to the city now. It was terrible. What Digimon could be doing this?

Ok, Amika quickly said as she looked at Kailee, do you have a Crest Kailee? Kailee gave Amika a funny look at first, but then she grinned. She quickly pulled a Tag out of her shirt. A gold colored Crest with a wave looking design on it was inserted into the Tag. Amika looked overjoyed.

I see that you re happy about this Crest thing, Kailee said as she placed the Tag back in her shirt, but what does it do? Amika s overjoyed look left her face and she dropped her head. She couldn t believe that Kailee just asked that. She really was clueless on about being a Digidestine.

It helps your Digimon Digivolve to her Ultimate form, Tai butted in before Amika could explain, and you re probably going to need it. Kailee slightly gasped and looked down at BlackGatomon as Amika looked up at Tai. Tai s face was serious again and a flame was burning in his eyes. Amika didn t like it when Tai got like this. The last time she remembered him being like this, she wound up getting hurt by him in a soccer game. She didn t want anyone else getting hurt because of Tai s inability to control his urge to come out on top.

I think you should get Gennai to take you home Tai, Amika said as she turned and faced Tai, Kailee and I can handle this. I m sure DemiDevimon and BlackGatomon can take this evil Digimon out. Tai suddenly got a shocked look on his face. He then gently grabbed Amika s arms and looked lovingly into her eyes. Her stern expression was unbroken though.

I know why you re worried, Tai said as he continued to give Amika a loving look, but I promise it won t happen. I ll control my temper and help out. I wouldn t try to be Head Honcho. Amika slightly smiled at Tai's comment. She then hugged him. He really matured a lot more than she had originally thought he had. She was actually proud of him.

Excuse me, BlackGatomon said as she jumped onto Kailee's shoulder, we have a crisis outside and you two are too interested in each other. Can you please pay attention to what's happen outside of the apartment. Tai and Amika both looked at BlackGatomon and started blushing. They broke apart and started toward the picture window. Once there, looks of horror crossed their faces. A hooded Digimon with large purple hands and stunning glowing eyes was standing at the base of the next door apartment building chanting. The chanting was destructive though. The words acted like little bombs. Each word would bounce off the building and explode a little section of it each time.

Oh, DemiDevimon suddenly said as he flew on top of Amika's head, that's got to be Wisemon. He has a wicked choice of words. His Pandora Dialog attack is quiet explosive. Amika was the one to grip her fist this time. She then spun around and looked right into Kailee's eyes. Kailee looked a little startled by the look on her friend's face.

Let's go Kailee, Amika said as she started toward Kailee's front door, We have to stop this thing before it destroys your city. Kailee slightly nodded and looked over at BlackGatomon. BlackGatomon nodded in reassurance. Then, with a sigh, Kailee started to follow Amika out of the apartment. Tai and Agumon weren't too far behind.

Once everyone was outside, they all looked a little upset. Wisemon had been busy. About half the block was destroyed and he didn't look like he was about to stop. Evil laughter could be heard from under his hood. He was enjoying this. Amika quickly looked at Tai and he nodded. With no words, they both grasped their Digivices. DemiDevimon and Agumon quickly made their way in front of their partners as both them and the Digivices started to glow.

Agumon Digivolve to...GREYMON!

DemiDevimon Digivolve to...WIZARDMON!

Alright, Amika said as Kailee looked at the freshly Digivolved Digimon, Glad to see you again

Wizardmon. Now go show Wisemon who's boss. Wizardmon nodded and then made a come on head motion at Greymon. Greymon nodded back at him and both Digimon were on their way.

How did those two grow bigger like that, Kailee asked as her eyes started to sparkle, That was so cool! I want BlackGatomon to be able to do that! Kailee and Tai both smiled nervously and looked at each other. They then opened their hands in Kailee's direction. Their Digivices were resting in the palms of their hands with a slight pulsing glow on their screens. Kailee looked confused as she took her Digivice out. She didn't understand what it had to do with the Digimon becoming bigger and different.

Just as Amika was going to explain, Wizardmon landed on the ground near her. He slowly stood back up holding his arm. Amika gasped and her Crest started to glow.

Wizardmon Digivolve to&...MYOTISMON!

Myotismon, Amika said as Myotismon stood in front of her, be careful. Don't over do it. Myotismon looked back at Amika with his green eyes and nodded. He then looked forward. His eyes grew wide as Greymon flew into him. He managed to keep his ground and help Greymon land carefully. Tai's quickly looked in Greymon's direction as he lied on the ground. His Crest glowed this time with a flash of orange.

Greymon Digivolve to&...METALGREYMON!

This guy is really tough, MetalGreymon said as he looked down at the three Digidestined, We might need one more. Amika and Tai both looked over at Kailee. Kailee understood what MetalGreymon was saying and she didn't like it. She was shaking her head and hugging BlackGatomon as tight as she could. Amika let out a sigh as Myotismon floated behind her.

Look Kailee, Amika said as she crossed her arms, You've got to let BlackGatomon fight. Kailee quickly shook her head again. BlackGatomon put her ears down as she looked up at Kailee. She then looked over at Amika and Tai.

I thought that's why you two were here, Kailee said without even looking at Amika, I thought it was your job to fight. Amika shook her head this time. Kailee misunderstood what Gennai sent them there for.

That's not true, Tai quickly said trying not to sound mean, Gennai sent us here to help you, not fight for you. We're back-up for BlackGatomon, not her bodyguards. You've got to stop protecting her Kailee. You've got to let her go. Kailee went to shake her head again, but stopped. She suddenly bent down and placed BlackGatomon on the ground. BlackGatomon's ears perked up as she looked back at Kailee. Kailee just nodded her head this time. With that nod, a golden glow came from the middle of Kailee's chest. It was her Crest. BlackGatomon was suddenly emerged in a golden light.

BlackGatomon Digivolve to...LADYDEVIMON!

BlackGatomon...you changed. You got stronger. LadyDevimon looked back at Kailee and smiled. She then kneeled down so that she was eye level with her partner.

The name's LadyDevimon now, LadyDevimon said as Kailee looked into her kind purple eyes, and I thank you. You don't know how much it means to me to be able to fight for your city. Kailee smiled brightly and gave LadyDevimon a hug. Amika and Tai just looked at each other and smiled. Kailee finally understood why BlackGatomon was with her.

Go get 'em, Kailee said as she let go of LadyDevimon. LadyDevimon quickly nodded and turned around. She then flew over to Myotismon. Myotismon just crossed his arms as she winked at him.

Well, LadyDevimon said as she landed on MetalGreymon's shoulder, what are we waiting for? Let's go get him, boys. MetalGreymon nodded and started toward Wisemon's direction. Myotismon rolled his eyes and slowly started to follow. Amika laughed at Myotismon's reaction. She then turned toward Tai.

It looks like someone likes Myotismon, Amika said as Tai looked down at her with a red tint to his face, and maybe even MetalGreymon. I think that s so adorable and funny all at the same time. Tai slightly nodded and started to sweat as Amika placed her hands on his. Kailee rolled her eyes this time. She then looked over to where the fight was about to start only a few feet away.

Well, you ve gotten bigger, Wisemon said as he looked at MetalGreymon and LadyDevimon, but that doesn t& Wisemon stopped in mid sentence as he spotted Myotismon float to one side of MetalGreymon. His eyes then narrowed as he clapped his hands together. mean you ll defeat me, He continued as he looked down at the ground, Especially you, imposter of the master! LadyDevimon and MetalGreymon looked over at Myotismon as a frown crossed his pale lips. He knew Wisemon was talking about him. He didn t like the fact that he was the same Digimon as his enemy, but it couldn t be helped. He didn t mind that much though. At least he would stand a chance against his former boss when the time rolled around.

How about a little less talk and a little more fight, LadyDevimon said as she flew off of MetalGreymon s shoulder, DARKNESS WAVE! A black wave impulsed toward Wisemon as LadyDevimon clapped her hands together. A grin crossed Wisemon s black face. He then looked up and placed one hand up. ETERNAL NIRVANA, he suddenly yelled out and a shield surrounded him. LadyDevimon s attack was bounced back at her. She quickly braced herself and took the attack. She barley moved because the attack was weakened from being bounced off the shield.

We ll never win like this, Myotismon said as he started to wrap himself in his cape, We have to all attack together. Ready&. MetalGreymon and LadyDevimon both nodded. They then got into a fighting stance.

GIGA BLASTER, MetalGreymon said as his machine-like chest started to open.

EVIL WING, LadyDevimon said as a dark wind came out of her wings as she flapped them.

GRIZZLY WING, Myotismon finally said as he opened his cape back up and an army of bats flew out. The bats quickly joined the other two attacks and headed toward Wisemon. Wisemon continued to grin until the attacks hit his shield. The force of all three attacks combined broke through his shield. They then pierced through his chest making him disappear in little bits of data.

They did, Kailee suddenly said as we come back over to her, Tai, and Amika, They actually did it. They defeated the Evil Digimon. Tai and Amika looked over to where their Digimon were and smiled. They then hi-fived each other.

Within a few minutes, everyone was back in Kailee s apartment and in front of her computer. DemiDevimon was asleep in Amika s arms, Salamon was standing next to Kailee, and Agumon was leaning on Tai. They were all looking at the computer screen as Gennai appeared on it and cleared his throat.

Well done Digidestined, Gennai said as he slightly smiled, I m proud of you all, especially you Kailee. Tai, Amika, I ll return you two back to Japan now. Just hold your Digivices to the computer screen. Tai and Amika nodded and held their Digivices up to the computer screen. As they started to glow, Tai and Amika disappeared.

As Amika and Tai reappeared back in Amika s room, they looked back at the computer screen. Amika was standing there smiling. Salamon was now on her head with a smile on her face as well. Amika smiled back at the two as one of DemiDevimon s antenna drooped over her arm.

I don t know how Salamon and I ll ever repay you, Kailee said as she held back tears. We would have never been able to beat Wisemon without you help. Amika slightly shook her head.

I believe you would have made out just fine by yourself, Amika said as Tai looked over her shoulder, Salamon and you make a great team. Now, I hate to go, but I m sure my parents will be home any minute and they don t like me on the computer when they re not home. Kailee smiled as she reached for her webcam. Amika reached for her s as well and they both shut them off at the same time. Just then Tai sat down in her computer chair and spun around once. As he ended up looking back at Amika, he noticed she had a slightly frustrated look on her face and her foot tapping.

Ya know, Tai said as he slightly leaned forward, There s room for two if you give DemiDevimon to Agumon. Amika suddenly turned bright red. She then placed DemiDevimon on Agumon s head and straddled Tai in the chair. Tai was the one to turn red this time as Amika pushed him backward so that his back was flat against the back of the chair. He wasn't suspecting her to do that. He was just suspecting her to sit on his lap or something.

Ok, Zak's voice suddenly said from the doorway, I promise not to tell Mom and Dad about this if you explain where you went and this. Amika quickly looked back at Zak and gasped. Her little brother was holding up a Digivice. He must have been the other Digidestine that Gennai was talking about.
