Imaginary Friend

By: Melissa Whitten

Every day
I watch it unfold before my eyes
Then she goes again
Off to school all alone
I meet her back at school
Walk with her to class
Find an empty seat or sit on the floor
Talk to her when she s bored
No one can see me though
I m invisible to everyone else
I m just a figure in the wild imagination
Of an extraordinary girl
At the end of the day
We lay on her bed and talk
She tells me everything
I tell her to calm down
When she s mad
I tell her it s okay
When she s mad
I tell her NO
When she does something bad
I m the last bit of childhood
She holds on to
Her wedding day will be out final day
(If we make it that far)
Best friends
