<style>hello there!! welcome to this layout template. i'll be here to guide you and show you around. you might want to look at some coding guides for reference though - you'll want to know what you're doing a bit.</style>

<style>below me are the google fonts codes. these instruct the cattery's fonts.</style>

<style>alright, now you (kind of) know your way around this layout! yay! i'll give you some further instructions.

the pattern is used is <http://www.colourlovers.com/pattern/4177906>. the following colors do the following things:

DE2E5D - background to boxes and mweor tabs and other messages etcetera

EAC0BC - main text color

8823CD - tooltip background and some other small details

5543F5 - header and bold color

0395C6 - box glow color

they also might have a few other details, but those are their main purposes. if you choose to sell custom layouts, simply ask for a five-color pattern and switch out the pattern url and the above hex codes. that's all i would let them dictate for themselves. whether you want to play with fonts or color correlations is personal preference. please don't make any major changes - keep it recognizable, you know? play around, but play with small stuff.

overall, have fun!!</style>
