This is a poem I wrote on 10/24/05, and I'm dedicating this poem to a certain someone stuck in hurricanes.

1 - Untitled

I'm worried I'm worried.
We are so far apart.
Danger lurks where you are.
And I cannot even reach you.

I'm afraid.
The lightning, thunder, floods.
The harsh winds tearing phone lines down.
And ripping out power lights.

I'm terrified.
You out there somewhere.
You and your family and friends.
And neighbors of old.

I'm shocked.
The hurricanes swirling and tearing apart your world.
Your safe haven.
And our link to each other.

I'm scared.
You might be hurt.
Or worse.
And I will never know.

I'm worried.
My love is out there.
Hurricanes swirling around my love.
And I can't hear my love scream.
