Totally get where you're coming from — the first impression among new teammates matters, even online. AVVA Experience offers virtual escape rooms for team building <https://avvaexperience.com/us/virtual-escape-room-team-building/> that work wonders for breaking the ice. Their experiences are set up to encourage communication and creative thinking, and they work well even if folks have never met before. What's cool is that the pressure's off — it's not about who's the smartest, but how well people can collaborate. That energy tends to stick even after the event ends. It feels less like an "activity" and more like a shared inside joke the team gets to carry forward.
