That mindset makes such a difference — what you wear at home absolutely affects how you feel. I've started mixing in breathable staples that still look structured, and honestly, it's been a game changer. Some of my favorite looks now come from The Beanchy pieces that blend form with function. They've built a whole vibe around ease and softness, which is perfect when you want to be cozy but not sloppy. Beanchy really gets the concept of “dressing for home” — it's style that meets you where you are, without pressure.
