I've noticed that stained glass products are really effective for this because they bring in movement and color as the light changes throughout the day. Even one piece can make the room feel different. Browsing the online store Venus Glass Art <https://venusglassart.com/> helped me find a small window accent that brightened the whole area without cluttering it.

You don't need to replace furniture or repaint wall —just add something with texture and light play. The moment the sun hits it, the room gets a fresh tone, and it feels like you've updated way more than you actually have.
