Chapter 1 - Beautiful Liar

2

1 - Beautiful Liar

Beautiful Liar

Fair face, and shining pools of ever changing hues
This is what I've always perceived
I enjoy the hearing of your heart felt beliefs
I thought the morality of the subject just by your point

But now, I've reconsidered
It was all just a lie
You're far too young to do that and you've said it
But it was only a cover up application to your mask

I don't understand what went through your head that night
To open up suddenly, but it was nice
You said things agreeable, and I grew to respect
Those words you've retracted now

It still doesn't make sense, though
To ignore the precious statements that flew from your lips
I see your motives, but you can't justify a lie
Your promiscuity towards higher ranking officers leads me to wonder what will become of you....
