Probably considered "weird" by some people. About the blindness of our society, and those who cannot open their eyes.

1 - What Happens When Somebody Falls?

Not quite a story, not quite a poem. Im sure youll understand its meaning.

What happens when somebody falls?
And everyone is too blind to catch them?
They hit the ground. Hard.
And they try to pick themselves up.
But nobodys there to help them.
What happens then?
When everyone cant open their eyes?
To see the pain in someone elses.
Cant see whats right in front of them.
When everyone just walks on by.
Or worse - kicks you when you are down.
When they just cant see.
That they are driving you to the edge.
Causing pain and suffering.
It makes them feel so big
To make you feel so small.
Until you consider yourself nothing.
So you pick yourself up.
But even then they are there.
To bring you down once again.

The blindness of everybody around us will bring us all to the ground.
If you are one of those who tears people down emotionally every day -
Open your mind, open your eyes, open your arms.
