1 - Sora and the Staircase

Hi, U5 here. I decided to make a Kingdom Hearts story since it's like the best game ever! Anyways, this story takes place after Kingdom Hearts: Chain of Memories. I thought I'd clear that up. Ok then, enjoy!

Chapter One

Sora and the Staircase

Sora slowly opened his eyes. He looked around to see he was in a castle hall. He sat up and rubbed the back of his head. Sora gazed all around him. Donald and Goofy were still unconscious behind him. In front of him was a winding staircase with platforms occasionally placed along the way.

"Donald! Goofy, wake up!" Sora said. The two woke up and got up. "What's wrong, Sora?" Goofy asked. He and Donald then realized they weren't where they should be. "Where are we?!" Donald shrieked. "Not sure." Sora replied. He was still looking around. Next to the staircase, was a platform with a door on it. It was marked with the sign of the Heartless.

The three friends started walking down the hall to the staircase. "What is this place?" Goofy asked. "It looks like a castle." Sora said. "Like Hollow Bastion?" Donald asked. Sora nodded. This castle did have a striking resemblance to Hollow Bastion, except it was whiter and didn't have all the elevator lifts. Sora wasn't so much worried about the scenery, he was more worried about the Heartless marked door. "C'mon!" Sora commanded.

They made their way across the hall and up to the foot of the platform. Sora looked as if he was about to jump up but a voice behind him spoke.

"What're you doing, Sora?" the voice asked. The three heroes turned around to see who was talking. Behind them was a tall man, around 6'4", wearing the black robes of The Organization. "You weren't going to pass through that door were you?" the man asked. "I was checking it!" Sora replied. The man laughed softly. "You're probably very confused." He said, "You don't even know where you are."

"Of course we do!" Sora said, "We're...uh..." He turned to Donald and Goofy. Each of them shrugged their shoulders. The man laughed softly again. "To clear things up, you're in the Castle of Dreams!" the man said, "And my name is Dexsis." Sora paused a second. He studied Dexsis. "Wait! You're with The Organization, aren't you?!" Sora yelled. Dexsis nodded.

"I am indeed with Axel, Larxene and all of them. After you escaped Castle Oblivion, they made sure you were transported somewhere else." Dexsis explained. "The Castle of Dreams!" Donald said. Dexsis nodded. "I was sent here to make sure you didn't get to the top of this castle!" Dexsis yelled. With that, he pulled out what looked like a Keyblade. It was very thin, black, had a spear on the top and a dragon wing on each side of the circle around the handle.

“What’s that?!” Sora asked. “This...is the Dragonblade!” Dexsis said, “You see, Sora, the Castle of Dreams is a magical place. If you make it to the top of the Castle, you will escape it and have your greatest dream fulfilled!” Sora, Donald and Goofy jumped as the platform with the Heartless marked door started moving upward. There was nothing holding it up, it seemed to just be levitating up.

“I will not allow you to get to that door first!” Dexsis yelled. “What dream do you want to come true for you?” Goofy asked. Dexsis lowered the Dragonblade. “My wish would be to escape The Organization!” Dexsis said, “Because I wielded the Dragonblade, I was forced into The Organization.” Sora backed down his hand, which he’d been inching toward the Keyblade he was strapped to his back.

“Well, I just want to get out of here and have everything back to normal.” Sora said. “And we want to find the King!” Donald said. Goofy nodded in agreement. “How precious.” Dexsis said, “However, you won’t be getting to that door before me!” Dexsis yelled as he charged and glided across the hall. Sora pulled out the Keyblade and blocked Dexsis as he swung the Dragonblade.

Dexsis swung a few more times, Sora blocking each swing. “It seems you’re a little more skilled than I had anticipated. Try this!” Dexsis yelled. A dark purple-black energy seemed to engulf Dexsis’ body. He pointed the Dragonblade at Sora. The dark energy engulfed the blade as well. A dark beam of energy then shot out from the Dragonblade and stung Sora in the heart.

“Sora!” Donald and Goofy screamed at the same time. Donald and Goofy readied themselves against Dexsis. Sora lay on the ground behind them. Dexsis lowered the energy field around himself and put the Dragonblade in the case he kept it in on his hip. He looked over to Donald and Goofy, who were in ready-to-attack positions. Dexsis smirked.

“Lower your weapons.” Dexsis said, “I don’t wish to fight you.” Dexsis made his way to the staircase and climbed about 3 stairs before he stopped. He looked behind him and saw Sora slowly getting to his feet. “I won’t let you get to the door first!” Sora yelled. With that, Sora ran after Dexsis. The black robed man started running up the staircase and up to the first door. Donald and Goofy were right behind Sora as they approached the first door as well. Dexsis put one finger on the door.

As he did that, the door shone bright and changed into a portal. “Wait!” Sora yelled. It was too late. Dexsis walked through the portal and into the first world. The three heroes got to the door and paused. “Dexsis already gone through!” Sora said. “Is it safe?” Goofy asked. “Only one way to find out.” Donald replied. He looked up to Sora. Sora nodded.

The three heroes slowly walked through the portal and into the first world

Chapter 2

Middleton

Sora opened his eyes and saw he was on a suburban street. Modern day houses were aligned down the street. "Where are we?" Donald asked. Suddenly, a hovercraft zoomed overhead, almost hitting Sora in the head. "Hey! Watch it!" Sora yelled. The three heroes looked behind them and saw two people flying towards them. "Take cover!" Goofy yelled.

Sora, Donald and Goofy ducked but the people didn't fly over them. The two landed right in front of them. "Are you ok?" a girl's voice asked. Sora looked up and saw a red-headed teen girl in a black shirt and a blonde-headed teen boy wearing the same thing. "Um, yeah, we're ok." Sora said. The girl and the boy helped the heroes to their feet. "Who are you?" Sora asked.

"My name's Kim Possible and this is Ron." Kim said. "Hi." Ron added. "I'm Sora and this is Donald and Goofy." Sora replied, "What was that thing that almost hit me?" Sora looked over for a second to see Ron having a fascinating time looking at Donald and Goofy. "His name was Dr. Drakken." Kim told him. "He's sort of our arch-enemy." Ron said, "Are these things real?" Donald smacked him. "Of course we're real!" he yelled. Goofy laughed.

A sound similar to a ringtone went off and Kim pulled out her communicator. "Go, Wade." Kim said. "Kim, I've got some info on Drakken's latest project." Wade explained. Sora walked over to Kim to try and get a look at who she was talking to. "Drakken's been experimenting with these creatures called the Heartless." Wade explained.

"The Heartless!?" Sora, Donald and Goofy screamed at once. "What's a Heartless?" Ron asked, who'd just walked back over. "Heartless are evil shadow creatures who feed on people with evil hearts." Sora explained. "Wait, Drakken's using things that'll eat him?" Ron asked. "No, I mean they're attracted to bad people." Sora said. "That's Drakken for ya." Kim said, "Wade, can you get us a lift to Drakken's lair?" Kim asked.

"No need." Wade said, "Check your closet back at home." Kim nodded. "Thanks Wade." She put the communicator back in her pocket. "C'mon, we need to go back home." Kim said, "And since you three seem to know what we're up against, I think you'd better stick with us." Sora smiled. "Sure!" he said. A pink rat poked its head out of Ron's pocket.

"Rufus, you're awake." Ron said, picking up Rufus. "What the heck is that?" Goofy asked. "This is Rufus, my pet naked mole rat!" Ron said. Rufus jumped off of Ron's hand and onto Sora's head. "I guess he likes you." Kim said, "C'mon, let's go." The five started walking.

Back in Kim's room, there were two new backpacks on the bed. "Sweet! New stuff!" Ron exclaimed. He and Kim put on the backpacks. "I guess Wade built us new jetpacks." Kim said. Then, she remembered Sora and the others were with them. "Oops, I guess I forgot to tell Wade we needed 3 more jetpacks." Kim said. "That's ok!" Donald said. "Oh yeah! We can fly can't we?" Sora exclaimed. Kim and Ron looked confused. "You're not from around here, are you?" Kim asked.

"Nope, you see we kinda got transported to this world on accident on accident." Goofy explained. Sora closed his eyes and tried thinking a good thought. Kairi came to thought and that was good enough for him. Yellow pixie dust formed around Sora's legs and he began to levitate. "Cool!" Ron exclaimed. "C'mon, we're losing precious time!" Kim said.

The other 4 nodded in agreement. They headed downstairs and opened the doors. Outside, the sky had turned from being bright and blue to dark and gray. "Wow, the weather sure changed fast!" Ron said. "Somehow, I don't think this is a weather change." Sora said. They 5 walked outside and down the driveway. Sora looked behind them and something was forming behind Ron.

"Ron! Look out!" Sora yelled. Ron screamed like a little girl as Sora jumped behind him and slashed a Shadow. "What was that thing?" Kim said with a little bit of fear in her voice. "That was a Heartless." Donald said. "And I'm guessing he wasn't the only one." Sora said as the group turned around. They turned around to see an army of 40 Shadow's. "Oh, great." Kim said.

Sora pulled out the Keyblade and charged into the swarm of Shadow's. He started slashing left and right, killing the Heartless one by one. Kim, Donald and Goofy followed behind, helping Sora with the Heartless. Ron, however, was cowering from a single Shadow that was checking him out. The Shadow didn't seem to be doing anything, just kind of sitting there, staring at Ron and occasionally turned its head to the side.

Ron didn't like it and neither did Rufus, who was now back with Ron. Rufus jumped out and bit the Shadow's antenna. The Heartless gave a short squeal before smacking Rufus and throwing him back into Ron. "Hey! No one smacks my naked mole rat!" Ron yelled. Ron jumped to his feet and gave the Shadow a roundhouse kick to the face. The Shadow squealed in pain and disappeared.

Kim and Sora stood back to back of each other. Sora was slashing the Shadow's with the Keyblade while Kim fought with kicks and punches. Only a few Heartless were left so Donald used a Thunder spell and destroyed the remaining Shadows. "Nice job, Donald!" Goofy said as he hugged him. "Get off me!" Donald yelled. Kim and Sora laughed. The communicator went off again.

"What's up, Wade?" Kim asked. "Kim! We you just attacked by the Heartless?" Wade asked. "Yeah and we just kicked their butt!" Sora said. "You'd better hurry downtown guys!" Wade said, "Drakken's unleashed a lot more of them! Wait who're those other guys with you?" Kim turned the communicator around so Wade could see. "Wade, this is Sora, Donald and Goofy." Kim said. "Nice to meet you." Wade said, "Now get going you guys!" Kim nodded and put the communicator away. "He's right! It's only a matter of time before the Heartless take over Middleton." Kim said.

The others nodded. "Let's go!" Sora said. The 5 heroes rushed downtown to fight the Heartless.

Chapter 3

Shego

Current World: Middleton

The 5 heroes arrived downtown to see it was infested with Heartless. Shadows were everywhere. Though, there was one type of Heartless that looked different. "What kind of Heartless are those." Sora asked. He expected to hear someone answer. "Jiminy?" Sora asked as he searched himself for the chronicler. "Where is he?" Sora's head jolted up. "Help!" Jiminy yelled. He sounded close. "C'mon!" Sora yelled to the group. The others shrugged and followed.

Sora and the others fought their way through 20 feet of Shadows. They finally got to Jiminy's voice. They found him being tortured by the new breed of Heartless. They seemed to look like Red Nocturne's except they had helmets and body parts similar to the Lil Diablo robots Drakken had used before. "Let him go!" Kim said, kicking one of the robo-heartless in the face.

The one Kim had kicked had fell into the other one causing Jiminy to fall. The cricket hopped back onto Sora's head. "Let's get to cover." Jiminy said. The heroes jumped over the Heartless and ran into the Taco Bueno.

"Jiminy! Are you ok?" Sora asked. "I'm fine, Sora. Thanks." Jiminy replied. "So...who're you?" Kim asked. "Jiminy Cricket's the name." he said enthusiastically. "Jiminy writes stuff on our adventures." Donald said. "What happened to ya Jiminy?" Goofy asked. "Well, when we came through the portal to Middleton, I fell out and was taken captive by the Heartless." Jiminy explained.

"What're those new Heartless called?" Sora asked, "We've never seen those before." Jiminy got out his book. "I believe their called Roboz." Jiminy said, "The used to be Shadows but that Dr. Drakken guy gave them robot suits." Ron laughed as he came back to the table they were sitting at with a bunch of Mexican food. "If Drakken's giving the Heartless battle armor, this'll be easy!" Ron said.

Sora looked confused. "Drakken isn't the evil genius he thinks he is." Kim said, "He's lucky if one of his inventions work." Sora, Donald and Goofy smirked. "He's that bad?" Sora asked. Kim smiled and nodded. There was a noise outside that made the heroes look over. Outside, the Roboz were marching down the street and taking people off the street at random.

Kim couldn't just sit there and let the Heartless take people hostage. She got up and ran outside. Sora got up and followed. Ron, Donald and Goofy were the only ones left. "Taco?" Ron asked Donald and Goofy. "Shouldn't we go help Kim and Sora?" Goofy asked. "Hey, free food!" Donald said, biting into his taco. Goofy shook his head and went outside to help.

“He’s right.” Ron said. He got up and followed Goofy. Donald was left. He got mad and put his taco down. He’d come back for it later. Outside, Kim and Sora were already busy beating up the Roboz. Goofy started plowing through the Roboz with his shield and Donald was shooting fireballs at them.

“Hey, hey, hey!” a voice called out, “What’s going on here?” A girl in a green outfit jumped down from a low building. “Shego!” Kim scowled. “Aw, aren’t you glad to see me, Kimmy?” Shego asked. “When am I ever?” Kim replied. Shego smirked. She snapped her fingers and all the Roboz stopped fighting and came to attention.

“You see, Kim. You can’t stop me and Dr. D...ok, mostly me.” Shego said, “Drakken told the Heartless to listen to me as well.” Shego snapped her fingers again and the Roboz brought in one of their hostages. “Dad!” Kim yelled. “Yea, D needs your daddy to help us with a little project.” Shego said, “Let’s go, boys!” Shego turned and started to walk away with the Roboz following.

“Shego!” Kim yelled. Shego turned around to get a kick in the face. She fell to the ground. Shego looked up and Kim was standing over her. “Let my dad go!” Kim yelled. Shego growled and shot an energy blast at Kim, sending her flying. “Take him to Drakken. I can handle this!” Shego yelled to the Heartless. The little Roboz started walking off.

“Sora! Go after my dad.” Kim demanded. “What about you?” Sora asked. “I can handle her.” Kim assured him. Sora nodded. He and Ron ran off with Donald and Goofy right behind them. “Alright, Kim. So you wanna play hard?” Shego asked. “Sure! Let’s play!” Kim said. The two jumped at each other and started punching and kicking at each other.

Shego’s hands lit up with her energy and she started slashing in Kim’s direction. Kim jumped up, did a flip over Shego and pushed off her back. She jumped up to a light pole, swung around it and landed back on the ground. Shego bounced right back up and ran full speed at Kim. She slashed but Kim jumped up and ended cutting the light pole instead.

“Stand still!” Shego yelled out of frustration. “Ok.” Kim said. With that, Shego noticed something coming toward her. She looked up in time to see the light pole fall on her. Shego struggles to get up. “Get this thing off me!” Shego yelled. “I’ll let the police know to do that.” Kim said, “Ok, now to catch up to Sora and Ron.”

Kim activated her jetpack and started flying in the direction that the Roboz took her dad. In about 20 minutes, she caught up. Ron was flying with his jet pack but Sora, Donald and Goofy were just...flying. “I still don’t get how you guys do that.” Ron said. “Magic!” Goofy explained. “Oh...that makes sense...I guess.” Ron said to himself.

It didn’t take much longer to catch up with the Roboz. Not only did they walk pretty slowly, you could see the massive swarm from a mile away. Ahead was a big laboratory on top of a hillside. “Well, at least his lair wasn’t hard to find.” Sora said. The heroes zoomed towards the lab to go rescue Dr. Possible.

Kim had finally caught up with the rest of her friends. They landed a few hundred yards from Drakken's lair. A bunch of Roboz and a new type of Heartless were standing guard around the giant fortress.

"Jiminy, what kind of Heartless are those?" Sora asked. Jiminy flipped through his notes. "They're another one of Drakken's robohybrid Heartless. These ones are called Wheelers." The new Heartless looked like the Hailfire droids from Star Wars except a lot smaller and they had the same helmets as the Roboz's.

"C'mon, we have to get inside and save my dad." Kim said. Everyone nodded in agreement and jumped out from their hiding spots. The Wheelers immediately turned around. Inside their cybernetic helmets, they were targeting their enemies and calculating power levels and possible threat ratio. All that weird robotic crap.

Sora rushed into the line of Wheelers and smashed through them. The Heartless rolled back but got upright and activated their laser cannons. Each had two semi-large cannons on their head now. "Sora! Look out!" Kim yelled. She shot a grappling hook on the side of the lair and swung over to Sora. Kim picked him up just as the Wheelers fired.

"Thanks, Kim." Sora said. Kim smiled and nodded and went off to fight through the Wheelers. The communicator beeped and Kim pulled it out. "Kinda busy, Wade." Kim said while being shot at. "Kim, look in your backpack. I put something in there that might help." Wade replied.

Kim put her hand back and fished out a bunch of small discs. "CD's?" Kim asked. "No, their disabled discs. Just throw them at the Heartless." Wade instructed. Kim threw them and the discs attached to the Wheelers. The discs lit up and started emitting electrical sparks.

The Wheelers spun around a few times then fell apart. "Cool!" Ron yelled. "C'mon!" Sora yelled as he ran for the door. The others followed. Inside, Dr. Drakken was fiddling with a computer chip. One of the doors opened and a beat-up Shego came slowly walking in.

"Ah, Shego. Did you get rid of Kim Possible?" Drakken asked. Just then, another door burst open and our 5 heroes came running in. "That answer your question?" Shego asked. "Ok, I know Kim Possible and the sidekick..." Drakken mumbled. "Ron Stoppable!" Ron yelled, "Why can't he ever remember myname?"

"Who're the other 3, Shego?" Drakken asked. "He's the Keyblade Master, Dr. D" Shego replied. "Ha! I was wondering if you'd ever get here!" Drakken yelled. "I can have the satisfaction of getting rid of YOU and Kim Possible!" Sora lifted an eyebrow in confusion.

"Behold my latest creation!" Drakken said, pulling a sheet off of a very large machine. "Fear my newest Heartless-robotic creation, Gearshift!" Drakken yelled. What he unveiled looked like a giant RoboZ, except it had giant wheels for shoulder armor, a cannon arm and twin cannons on its back.

"What's my dad have to do with this?" Kim asked. "Um, Shego, why did we take Dr. Possible again?" Drakken asked. "To lure Kim Possible here, duh!" Shego replied. "Oh, yeah." Drakken said, "Anyway, Gearshift, attack!" Gearshift's eyes lit up, showing it was activating itself.

It stepped out from its spot in the dark corner and right in front of the heroes. "Uh, oh." Donald said. "Don't worry, Donald." Sora said, "We've beaten Heartless much bigger than this!" Donald and Goofy looked a little less afraid now.

"Sora, me and Ron will try to deactivate Gearshift from the head, try and see if you can weaken him a little." Kim said. Sora nodded and signaled for Donald and Goofy to help. They rushed to Gearshift and started smacking away at its legs. Kim and Ron shot grappling hooks around Gearshift's head and swung up. They thought Gearshift was paying attention to Sora, Donald and Goofy but they were wrong.

Sora looked up and saw Kim and Ron running across Gearshift's shoulder but he also saw one of the twin cannons was charging up and aimed at them. "Kim!" Sora yelled. Kim and Ron both stopped and noticed the cannon about to fire. In a giant white light, Gearshift fired. "AERO!" Sora yelled. A force-field appeared around the two and shielded them from the blast.

Aero wore off after the blast had finished. "Thanks, Sora!" Kim yelled. Sora smiled and continued slashing up Gearshift. Kim and Ron got to the side of Gearshift's head. "Ron, we need Rufus." Kim said. Ron pulled Rufus out of his pocket. "You're on, Rufus." Ron said. Rufus nodded and started drilling a hole in the side of Gearshift's head.

On the floor, Sora, Donald and Goofy were wearing down Gearshift. Drakken had noticed. "Wheeler's, attack!" he yelled. An army of Wheelers drove over to Sora's area and started firing lasers. Sora used the Keyblade to deflect the shots. The blasts ricocheted and destroyed the Wheelers.

"Shego, get in there!" Drakken yelled out of frustration. Shego started charging toward Sora. "Donald, Goofy, can you take care of Gearshift?" Sora asked. "No problem!" Goofy replied. Sora nodded and charged towards Shego. Her hands lit up and slashed at Sora as he slashed the Keyblade. The two slashed at each other over and over, blocking each slash. Sora though quick, ducked at one of Shego's slashes and swiped the Keyblade at her feet, causing her to fall over into some crates.

Kim and Ron ventured into the head of Gearshift only to find Kim's dad. "Dad! Here you are!" Kim exclaimed as she and Ron untied him. "Kim, we gotta shut down the robot!" Ron yelled. Kim nodded and went over to the front of the head. Oddly enough there was a small "deactivate" button. "Drakken's not too bright but this is just stupid." Kim pushed the button and Gearshift shut off.

Kim, Ron and Dr. Possible jumped down from Gearshift and met up with the rest of the gang. "Where'd Drakken and Shego go?" Kim asked. The group looked over and saw Drakken and Shego getting away in their hovercraft. "Farewell, Kim Possible!" Drakken said as they flew off. "Lair Detonation in 10 seconds." A robotic voice said. The heroes ran out of the lair just as it exploded.

Later, the 5 heroes returned to the lair, which was now in ashes. Sora saw that the giant computer screen was still in one piece. As they walked up to it, a keyhole appeared on the screen. "What's that?" Ron asked. "It's the keyhole to this world." Sora said, "When I lock this, the Heartless won't be able to come back to this world."

"And Drakken won't be able to make anymore hybrid Heartless." Kim stated. Sora nodded. He put his Keyblade up in the direction of the keyhole. A small beam of light shot from the end of the Keyblade and into the keyhole. They all heard a locking noise as the beam disappeared. Suddenly, a door appeared.

"Well, I guess this is good-bye." Sora said. "Thanks for helping us with the Heartless." Kim said as she gave Sora a quick kiss on the cheek. Sora touched his face. "No problem!" Sora replied. The heroes said their final good-byes and Sora, Donald and Goofy walked through the door and back to the castle.
