1 - the story of the tento blade

Long ago in a small village, where me and my family live a long story would start. This village was just outside of Tovaseata lived me, my step mom, my dad, and my little brother. My father was a full demon as was my mom. My mom left on her quest to find the shigon jewel when I was 9 and she would always say that I should be a warrior and my dad would always say I should be a wife. I really did not know what I really wanted.

I was strong and I was kind-hearted. But would I ever be able to find what I want? My family was also very traditional. One in particular that I was interested in. The story of the tento blade. The story says that there was a ruby in the hilt of it. It gave the sword special powers.
