Chapter 1 - Plastic

2

1 - Plastic

See my plastic smile

Hear my plastic voice

With every plastic step I take

And every plastic choice

I take a plastic breath

And heave a plastic sigh

And in my plastic mind, I know

The truth comes by and by

The plastic little girl

Wants to become real

To hear a human sound, and yes

To feel a human feel

I'm a fragile little doll

With a plastic little face

A plastic, fake expression

Fake silk, my dear, fake lace

Look at my plastic world

And suddenly I know

My plastic walls are caving in

The plastic is my foe

But how do I change

The plastic in myself

Am I just another doll

That sits upon the shelf?

And if I fall and break,

Will the plastic in me die?

Can the human girl be free?

Free of the plastic lie?

There is only one way

I think as the floor

Reaches to seize me

The plastic doll is no more
