Through your eyes
The world is falling apart
And it seems faith has been downcast
And long forgotten
He is scared
To see the unimaginable
And we hate to see him cry
While the father is distant
But in my eyes
The tears refuse to surface
Because in my heart lies hope
And some relief
Always there exists
A smile for you
The one that matters most
And you should know
As time passes
And age becomes apparent
Our bond will only grow
You will always be our mother
And we will always love you
